John Shatto and Margaret Leonard

John Shatto was born Dec. 7, 1804 Shermans Valley, Cumberland Co. Pa. His father was Henry Shatto b. 17 July 1781 Pa. and his mother Margaret.

Henry, the father is buried at Fairfield Cemetery DeKalb Co. Indiana near his grandson, John L. Shatto who died Dec. 16, 1861 of illness near Evansville, Ind. during the Civil War. His mother isnt buried there so she may have died in Trumbull Co. Ohio.

As a boy John Shatto b. 1804 attended school in Ellsworth Township, Trumbull Co., Ohio so his parents lived there and probably came to DeKalb Co. Ind. when other members of the family came in the year 1846-47.

John married Margaret (Peggy) Leonard da. of John Leonard Sept. 29, 1825 Trumbull Co. Ohio. Her father was born New Jersey 1755 and served as a private in the American Revolution, Pa. Margaret was born July 1, 1807 Washington Co. Pa. Her father died in Trumbul Co., Ohio in 1813. Her brothers and sisters were born in Washington Co. Pa. and the family moved to Trumbull Co. Ohio about 1807 or 1809.

John Shatto and Margaret Leonard continued

John Shatto and Margaret Leonard lived the following places. History of Kosciusko Co. Ind.

1827 Trumbull Co. Ohio
1834 Portage Co. Ohio
1839 Mercer Co. Pa.
1845 Mahoning Co. Ohio
1846-47 DeKalb Co. Ind.
1880 Kosciusko Co. Ind.
1889 Kosciusko Co. Ind.

They had the following children: Henry, Rachel Samantha, Loretta, Harriett, Lavina, John L., Isiah, and Adam.

In the year 1855 the parents John and Margaret were charter members of the Cedar Lake Organization, Church of Christ (Disciples) They were addmitted by letter. This Church is still in existance to-day and now called Cedar Lake Church of Christ (Independent) Waterloo, Ind. The first meeting of this Church was held at the home of Henry Shatto, Fairfield Township, DeKalb Co., Ind. and the first Sunday School at Adam Shatto's wagon shop, Thompsons Corners where Adam made wagons for the pioneers.

John & Margaret moved to Kosciusko Co. Ind. in later years where their son Henry lived. Also, Harriett and Lavina lived near this area.

Margaret died Nov. 5, 1874 Marshall Co. Ind

John Shatto & Margaret Leonard continued –

She is buried at Harrison Center Cemetery, Kosciusko Co., Ind.

John married Anna Jordan, a widow as shown in the 1880 Census. In 1889 he applied for a dependent fathers pension on son John L. Shatto's miltitary service. John and Anna lived in the little town of Etna Green, Ind. A photo was taken of them in front of their home. He is holding a horse by the reins and she is sitting at her spinning wheel.

Anna Jordan died May 24, 1901 and John died Oct. 16, 1901 at the home of his da. Lavina, (Mrs John Cole) Tippecanoe Township Kosciusko Co. Ind. He was 96 years of age. Both are buried at Harrison Center Cemetery, Kosciusko Co., Ind.

OBITUARY

Rachel Samantha Shatto, daughter of John and Margaret Leonard Shatto, was born August 10, 1834, in Deerfield township, Portage county, Ohio. She lived there about five years, then moved with her parents to Pennsylvania, Mercer county, and lived there one year. She then moved to Trumble county, Ohio, and lived there two years. Then to Stark county, Ohio and lived there six years and from there she with her parents moved to DeKalb county, Indiana, in 1850, and made their home near Cedar Lake. On Oct. 5, 1851, she was married to David A. McBride, with whom she lived until the breaking out of the civil war when the husband was called to fight for his country, from which he never returned alive. She also did what she could for her country in the way of furnishing the sanitary department at Waterloo, a great amount of articles such as bandages, pillows, etc., for the sick and deserving soldiers. To these two there were born two children, Emma L. and Mary L., the latter having died at the age of eight years. She was married the second time to Frederick Harmes on Dec. 25, 1864, with whom she lived until his death which occurred Oct. 21, 1886. To this union was born one child, Eva M., with whom she was living at the time of her death. She leaves to mourn her departure two children, namely Mrs. Emma L. Brugh, of Traverse City, Mich., and Mrs. Eva M. Triplett of Auburn, Ind. A step-son. Joel E. Harmes, of Prairie City, Ia., also a step-grandson, whom she raised from infancy and who was loved by her as her own son; also eleven grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren; one brother, Henry Shatto, of Mentone, Ind, and three sisters—Mrs. Loretta Sloan of Iola, Kan., Mrs. Harriet Baxter of Plymouth, Ind., and Mrs. Lavina Cole of near Warsaw, Ind.; besides a host of neighbors and friends who join in sympathy with the family. The subject of this sketch was baptized when a young girl by Father Hadsell and united with the Church of Christ, and has been a faithful Christian all these years. Nothing kept her from church or Sunday school except some reason she could give her Saviour. On Oct. 21, 1908, she broke up housekeeping on account of the infirmities of old age and went to live with her granddaughter, Mrs. Purd High, of near Hudson, Ind., with whom she lived about eighteen months. On Dec. 29, 1910, she went to live with her daughter, where she died Nov. 15, 1912, at the age of 78 years, 3 months and 5 days Her heart was always with the church at Cedar Lake and her old home near Cedar Lake, where she had lived for over thirty years. She has been a faithful worshipper at the Stroh school house and although at first the faces there were all strange she soon made many warm friends. Her death was due to an accident from falling down cellar, in which she was very painfully injured. All was done that human hands could do but to no avail. She was ready and willing and wanted to go home, and expressed herself many times by saying that if it was God's will she was ready. She was very patient during her intense suffering. She has been a resident of DeKalb county for over sixty years, and though her life work is done, her influence will still go on and we know that she is now where there is no more sorrow or pain or homesickness or trouble of any kind. God grant that we may live as near to our Saviour as she did to hers. A short service was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva Triplett, Sunday morning at 9 a. m. Then her friends followed her body to her old home church at Cedar Lake, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. Z. W. Shepard of Ashley, assisted by Rev. Nickerson of Auburn and Rev. Thomas, pastor at Cedar lake. She was buried at Cedar Lake cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks to the kind neighbors who assisted us in the sickness, death and burial of our dear mother and grandmother, also for the beautiful flowers and for the sympathy of her many friends.

ETNA GREEN TRIBUNE

DECEMBER 9, 1898

The 94th birthday of Grandpa Shatto was celebrated at his home Dec. 7th, by a host of relatives and friends. Five generations were represented.

Mr. T. A. Smailes has purchased a gramaphone for his individual use and his wife's pleasure, although he does not hesitate to give his neighbors and friends an opportunity to listen. It is a wonderful invention and most highly entertaining.

Messrs. Harris and Dennis, of Bourbon, were in Etna, Tuesday night with their stereoptican views.

Rev. Spitler has been giving excellent sermons the past week. the Revival services are growing in interest.

Rev. Powers returned from North Union, Wednesday, where he assisted Rev. Markin in a revival.

The Christian and U. B. S. S. have joined in preparing to give a grand Christmas entertainment.

A very pleasant surprise was held at the home of Frank Binkley, Tuesday, in honor of the birthdays of A. J. Leall, Mrs. Jennie Binkley and H. L. Thomas. 35 people did ample justice to a bountiful dinner.

Mrs. Jane Riley, Mattie Easterday and Bertha Parks are all on the sick list, but somewhat better.

County seat visitors Saturday, were Winifred Hamlin, Louis Mason, Oscar Keller, Mrs. Bertha Schaeffer and son, Clifford, and H. W. Graham.

A Ripe Old Age

John Shatto was born in Pennsylvania Dec 7, 1804, died at ~~at~~ the home of his daughter in Marshall county, Oct. 15, 1901, aged 96 years, 10 months and 10 days.

Mr. Shatto came to Indiana in an early day and has been a pioneer of Kosciusko county, having settled near Etna Green where he lived until about a year ago when he went to live with his daughter at old Tiptown. He was the oldest citizen in Kosciusko or Marshall county. He was the father of 5 children, 20 grand-children, 65 great-grand-children and 8 great-great-grand-children. These represent the fifth generation, a very remarkable occurrence in the human family.

Mr. Shatto enjoyed fairly good health until about a year ago when he became very feble and remained so until the time of his death. He always had a good memory and retained the full use of his mental faculties to the last. He was always of a cheerful and happy disposition, and very zealous in his religious faith. He was ~~highly~~ highly respected and honored by all who knew him.

The funeral occurred today (Thursday) at the Center church, conducted by Rev. Powers of Etna Green.

Dear Mrs. DeVoe,

I'm enclosing some extracts from an Obituary which I have recently found in an old newspaper. The book (Formerly bound papers) is in a very, very poor condition. So sorry that I had not been able to get even hunt for this sooner.

Sincerely,

Mabel Brown

ACT OF JUNE 27, 1890.

Declaration for Dependent Father's Pension.

This must be Executed before some Officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes.

State of Indiana, County of Kosciusko ss.

ON THIS 2d day of August A. D., one thousand eight hundred and ninety- , personally appeared before me a Notary Public within and for the County and State aforesaid, John Shatto, aged 85 years, a resident of the Town of Etna Green, County of Kosciusko, State of Indiana who, being duly sworn according to law, declares that he is the father of John L Shatto, who enlisted under the name of John L Shatto, at on the day of Aug, 1861, in Co. K 44 Regt Ind Vols (Here state rank, company and regiment in military service, or vessel, if in the navy.) in the war of the rebellion, who died at Evansville Indiana, on the 15 day of Dec, 1861, from the effects of typhoid fever and hemorrhage of bowels incurred at Fort Wayne Indiana, on the day of September 1861 That said son left neither widow, nor child under sixteen years of age surviving. That declarant was married to the mother of said son on the 23 day of Sept, 1826, at Trumble county Ohio by Isaiah Paxton

That he is without other present means of support than his own manual labor, or the contributions of others not legally bound for his support. That he has applied for a pension, the number of his application being 409.847. That he makes this declaration for the purpose of being placed on the pension roll of the United States under the provisions of the Act of June 27, 1890.

He hereby appoints, with full power of substitution and revocation, ALLAN RUTHERFORD, of Washington, D. C., his true and lawful attorney to prosecute his claim. And he hereby agrees to pay said attorney, Ten (10) dollars to prosecute his claim to a successful issue. That his POST OFFICE ADDRESS is Etna Green, County of Kosciusko, State of Indiana fall of 1876. He owns 120 acres of excellent land in a good state of cultivation. Mr. Fisher is a self-made man. When he arrived in this county he had nothing but a few household goods and $25 in money. He has been a hard-working man, and experienced all the hardships that fall to the lot of the pioneer. His educational advantages were very limited in his youth, but he has secured a good practical education, and is well informed on the general topics of the day. Politically he affiliates with the Democratic party; religiously he is a member of the United Brethren church, and has served as steward in that church.

HENRY J. SHATTO, farmer, section 10, Harrison Township, Kosciusko County, Indiana, is a native of Trumbull County, Ohio, born June 23, 1827, a son of John and Margaret Shatto, of German and Irish descent. When he was seven years old his parents moved to Portage County, Ohio, and from there, five years later, to Mercer County, Pennsylvania, where they lived about six years, when they returned to Ohio and located in what is now a part of Mahoning County. From there they moved to Stark County, and in the fall of 1850 to Indiana and settled in DeKalb County. Mr. Shatto, our subject, came to Indiana in 1851, and with the exception of a short time spent in Nebraska, has since lived in Kosciusko County. He owns a good farm of forty acres, all under cultivation, and is one of the prominent and influential citizens of the county. He was married July 12, 1849, to Lucinda Wood, of Stark County, Ohio. She died October 8, 1869. They had a family of seven children—Elmira J., wife of Benjamin Blue; Mary F., deceased; Hannah M., wife of Samuel Mentzer; Ezra M., of Nebraska; Sarah E., wife of Henry Morgan; Jesse J., of Nebraska, and Catherine L., at home. February 17, 1870, Mr. Shatto married Eunice Holloway, widow of Robert Holloway, and daughter of Elisha and Diantha Sheldon, early settlers of Kosciusko County, coming here from Vermont in 1843. Mrs. Shatto had seven children by her first marriage, three of whom are living— Francis M., of Nebraska; Ellen E., wife of Jesse Lawyer, of Sherman County, Kansas, and Olive, wife of James Gullion, of Nebraska. In politics Mr. Shatto is a Republican. He has served his township as school director. He and his wife are members of the Christian church.

CHARLES KLOUS, farmer, section 12, Scott Township, was born in Stark County, Ohio, son of Michael and Christiana (Shaffer) Klous, the former a native of Byron, Germany, and the latter of France. The father immigrated to this country in 1832, settling in Stark County. He was married about the year 1836. Mrs. Klous was a daughter of Phillip Shaffer, a native also of Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Klous were the parents of three children — Charles, George M., and one unnamed that died in infancy. Mr. Klous came to Scott Township in 1850 and purchased forty acres of unimproved land, afterward adding forty acres more, which he improved and sold in 1882. Our subject was twelve years of age when he came to this county. He lived at home until he was twenty-three years of age, and September 25, 1850, was married to Miss Fanny Snively, daughter of George and Susanna (Good) Snively, of Scott Township, natives of Pennsylvania. To this union three children were born — Susan C. married

In Forrest Shade's message he asks about whether anyone has an Adam Shatto as s/o John Shatto and Margaret Leonard. I do not have the definitive answer but an Adam Shatto shows up in the 1860 Fairfield Twp., DeKalb Indiana census, living next door to William & Lydia Shatto, viz:

I have also found the following marriage record for Adam Shatto and Mary Jane Allen. The two Allen children in the 1860 household indicate that they are children of a previous marriage for Mary Jane (see information just after this marriage record)

Suzanne Shatto passed these on to me and thought they should be passed on to the Shatto list. They are things found on the following website:

Fulton County Public Library Indiana, USA http://www.fulco.lib.in.us

These do not show up necessarily with a search engine. If you go onto this page and hack around, there are hundreds of pages of newspaper excerpts and obits.

1. Hannah M. Shatto Mentzer, d/o Henry J. Shatto & Lucinda Wood - Mentone is in Kosciuzko Co, Indiana

"The News Sentinel, Thursday, April 1, 1937 Mrs. Hannah M. MENTZER, aged 79, succumbed at her home in Mentone on Tuesday morning following a four days illness due to apoplexy.
The deceased was born in Indiana and she spent practically all her lifetime in and around Mentone. She was married sixty-two years ago to Samuel S. Mentzer, Mentone groceryman. She was a member of the Mentone Baptist church.

Surviving are the husband, Samuel S. MENTZER; two children, Mahlon MENTZER, of Mentone, and Mrs. Ersie COLE, of Mentone; six grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Ben BLUE, and Mrs. Lizzie MORGAN, both of Mentone, and Mrs. HAWK, of South Bend, and one brother, Morgan SHATTO, who resides in the west.

The funeral services were held at the Mentone Baptist church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. YEAGER, pastor of the church officiated. Interment was made in the Mentone cemetery."

Fred:

Again thanks. Just which Jean or John this may be is an interesting dilemma.

William Shatto (s/o David, s/o Jean Nicholas, Jr., s/o Jean Nicholas, Sr., the immigrant) has in his vanity biography of 1890 the following:

"A native of Perry County, Pa., our subject was born Nov. 17, 1814, and is the son of David Shatto, a native of York County, that State, and who died in 1843. The paternal grandfather was Nicholas Shatto, who was born in France, and was the son of a French Hugenot. Grandfather Shatto crossed the ocean with his father when a lad of six years and later served as a soldier in the Revolutionary War, being one of the body-guard of Gen. Washington from the beginning to the end of that great struggle. After the independence of the colonies had been established, he settled in Perry County, Pa., where he spent the remainder of his life, dying at the advanced age of ninety-six years. He married a lady who was of Swiss and Holland-Dutch extraction, and she also is supposed to have spent her last days in the Keystone State, dying at the age of ninety-four years."

This family story may have had some embellishment but points to Revolutionary War service - but not the limited period in the records. Furthermore, Jean Nicholas Chateau, Jr., is usually referred to in the records of PA as Nicholas Shatto.

The other might be John Chateau, s/o Jean Nicholas Chateau, Sr. I have a note (no substantiation or explanation) from my mother's papers that he has a Revolutionary War record.

Does anyone have any ideas or proof??

I went onto Google and found a bunch of sites for Hazen's Regiment. It was known as Col. Moses Hazen's Regiment (sometimes "mixed Canadians") and fought at Brandywine - holding off a larger force of Hessian grenadiers at great loss (a footnote on the page says: "This unit was made up of men from New York and Pennsylvania but the majority were Canadians who had joined the rebellion in 1775 and were now in exile."

A mention is made that most of the Canadians were French and Indians.

Another page has them at the siege of Yorktown.

Another page for a Duncan family of Mercer Co PA, has excerpts from some of the records that Hazen's Regiment was initally raised for Canada:
"Archives of MD" Vol.XVIII, Muster Rolls & Other Records of Service of MD Troops in the American Rev. 1775-1783 (FHL book 975.2 B4m Vol.18 and film 1,688,662)
Records of MD Troops in the Continental Service during the War of the American Revolution, 1775-1783.
Rolls of MD Men in Various Other Corps Not Belonging to MD
Pg.598: 2nd Canadian or Hazen's. The Regiment was intended to be raised in Canada and for some time was called the 2nd Canadian. Later it was recruited in the United States. ... Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of Col. Hazen's Regiment belonging to State of MD ... Late Capt. Burne's Co. ... James Duncan, Private. Return of Hazen's Regiment 1783. (MAD: James Duncan, Rev. War Pension, of Mercer Co. PA)"

Another page has them wintering at Valley Forge and then marching in Dec 1777 to Wilmington, Delaware.

Another page has Capt. Liebert originally raising his company along the Richelieu River in Canada.

What seems obvious is that these companies and and regiments were very fluid in personnel and seemed to recruit on the move as well.

It may be possible that this Jean Chateau was actually a French-Canadian.

Cheers, Barry

> Here is the text of three documents, regarding Jean Chateau, that I found during a recent visit to the National Archives. The first one is a letter from the Adjutant General to Sunshine Foulke, the second is a Roll card and the third is a Pay Roll card. I tried to copy them just as they appeared. Please note that the date on the Pay Roll card is 1886, even though it is stated as 1876 in the Adjutant General's letter. Also, note the spelling "Chastaue" on the Roll card. I made copies of these documents. However, they areprinted on 11X18 paper, which is too large for me to scan.

> The records show that Jean Chateau, rank not shown, served as a member of Hazen's Regiment, Continental Troops, Revolutionary War. His name appears on a roll dated LeFeurier, 1776 and on a pay roll "of Captain Liebert's company, (tory)rily Inlisted into the Service of the united Colonies of (torn) Commandant to Serve in Canada only," dated 15 May 1876, at New York, which shows he entered the service 19 Marcy, year not shown, and served 91 days.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information may be obtained from the Manuscript & History Section, New York State Library, Albany, New York or the Archivist of the United States, Washington 25, D. C., who has custody of the pension records of that war.

Blanki went to the library today and found a few items that may be of interest.

there is a book called "The Goshenhoppen Registers 1741-1819" reprinted from Records of the American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia With an Index by Elizabeth P. Bentley, R929.37481 G692 published by Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. Baltimore 1984 ISBN 0-8063-1080-4.

I didn't look at the index carefully, there may be several entries because of the consistent misspelling of the shatto name.

"Chateau, A. Barbara and Catharine, of Nicholas (Calv.) and M. Eva Chateau, baptized August 7th in John Molitor's house, near Germantown; sponsors A. Barbara Fridrich for the former, and Catharine Riffel for the latter."
this is under the year 1744 section.
i will probably look more carefully at this book within the month.
barry told me that some children were baptized in protestant denominations and some in catholic denominations. it is possible that marie eva was catholic and nicholas was protestant. i would venture a guess that Calv. means calvinist. perhaps some of the name variations might be explained further by the person would gave the name to the official as well. perhaps marie eva might prefer the spelling chateau while nicholas prefer a more german sounding name schatto or a variation of that.

now a ship record:
A book: "A Collection of Upwards of Thirty Thousand Names of German, Swiss, Dutch, French and other Immigrants in Pennsylvania From 1727 to 1776" by Professor I. Daniel Rupp, reprint of the 2nd revised and enlarged edition with an added index. Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1985. R929.374 R878C ISBN 0-8063-0302-6.

pages 136-138:
73) Sept. 3, 1739. Palatines imported in the ship Loyal Judith, Edward Painter, Commander from Rotterdam, last from Deal.--315 passengers.
Joh. Nicolas Schatteau is listed as a passenger.
Note:--On the 26th of December, 1738, a ship of 300 tons was cast away on Block Island. (Block Island lies in the Atlantic, south of the State of Rhode Island. It is eight miles in length and from two to four miles in breadth. It constitutes the township of New Shoreham, Newport Co., R. I. There are no forests, the only fuel is peat.--I.D.R.) This ship sailed from Rotterdam in August, 1738, last from Cowes, England. John Wanton, the Governor of Rhode Island, sent Mr. Peter Bouse and others from Newport to Block Island, to see how matters were. On the 19th of January, 1739, these returned to Newport, R. I., reporting that the ship was commanded by Captain Geo. Long, that he died on the inward passage, and that the mate then took charge of the ship which had sailed from Rotterdam with 400 Palatines, destined for Philadelphia, that an exceedingly malignant fever and flux had prevailed among them, only 105 landing at Block Island, and that by death the number had been reduced to 90. The chief reason alleged for this great mortality was the bad condition of the water taken in at Rotterdam. It was filled in casks that before had contained white and red wine. The greater part of the goods of the Palatines was lost.--Penn. Gazette, Feb. 8, 1739.

now, where JNC comes from:
A book: "Pennsylvania German Immigrants 1709-1786, edited by Don Yoder, Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1980. R929.3748 P3837 ISBN 0-8063-0892-3.

in the chapter Immigrants from Zweibruecken, page 290-294:
(the picture on page 290 says: The Palatinate and the Middle Rhine. The district of Zweibrucken lies mainly to the north and east of the City of Zweibrucken.)
When the Provincial Council of Pennsylvania issued in 1727 the order that in future all masters of vessels landing in Philadephia and importing foreigners, should hand in lists of all the people they were importing, the order called for three things: (1) the names of all the arrivals, to be submitted by the captains, (2) their several occupations, (3) the places from which they had come. The first point of the order was carried out by the captains, but the other two points were completely ignored, to the great chagrin and disappointment of all historians and genealogists of later generations. Unless these pioneers brought with them passports or other documents, revealing their former places of residences, or unless they brought family Bibles, which contained information about their origin, and unless these precious documents survived to the present time, it was thus far impossible to ascertain the birthplaces of the newcomers.

As a result of this state of affairs, the hope has frequently been expressed, most recently by Professor Albert B. Faust of Cornell University (in his review of "Pennsylvania German Pioneers". In the Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography, vol. 69 (1935), p. 436.), that lists of emigrants might be discovered in German and Swiss archives, which would throw light upon the original homes, from which the early German pioneers came to Pennsvlvania. Such lists would be a fitting and most welcome supplement to the lists, preserved by the State of Pennsylvania, which at first promised this information, but did not actually contain it.

This hope was partially realized by Professor Faust himself, when he brought to light such lists in the archives of Switzerland. They were published by him in 1920 and 1925, in two volumes, entitled "Lists of Swiss Emigrants in the Eighteenth Century to the American Colonies". (Vol I, contains lists from Zurich, 1734-1744; Vol. II, lists from Bern, 1706-1795; and lists from Basel, 1734-1794. Compiled and edited by A B. Faust and Gaius M. Brumbaugh, National Genealogical Society, Washington, 1920 and 1925.)

About the same time other important sources were made available, from which the homes of the emigrants could be ascertained These were church records in Germany, in which many pastors had noted the departure of their parishioners to the New World In 1928, Dr Adolf Gerber published two pamphlets: (the German title) "Contributions to the emigration to America", published in Stuttgart in 1928 These publications showed clearly that the German church records preserved the names of hundreds of persons, who emigrated to America in the 18th century and indicated at the same time the places form which the emigrants had started.

The list which we publish below is the first to be derived from the German archives It was extracted from a document in the Bavarian State Archives at Speyer, Germany, and was communicated to the editors by Dr Albert Pfeiffer, Chief Archivist at Speyer. It was taken from a document, marked "Zweibruecken III,2035." Unfortunately, no detailed description of this document is at present available, as it is reserved for the publication of the original German text. Meanwhile we offer a literal English rendering, in which the spelling of all proper names, names of persons as well as of places, has been carefully presented as given in the original transcript, furnished by Dr. Pfeiffer, to whom our heartiest thanks are due for allowing us to place this important document before American readers.

The list which we publish treats of emigrants who left the former duchy of Zweibruecken, during the years 1728-1749. It is not a complete list of all the emigrants who left Zweibruecken during this period, as is plain from the lists of pioneers in Pennsylvania, but we must be grateful for the information which it contains.

The Duchy of Zweibruecken had become a part of the Palatinate in 1685, when the Zweibruecken-Neuburg line of Dukes fell heir to the Electoral Palatinate upon the extinction of the Palatinate-Simmern line of princes, who had ruled the Palatinate from 1559 to 1685. The Zweibruecken-Neuburg line of Dukes were Catholics, and by their oppressive measures, which they adopted against their Protestant subjects, contributed their share to setting the emigration of their subjects to America in motion.

The territory of Zweibruecken contained what is now comprised in the "Bayerische Rheinpfaltz", i. e., the Bavarian Rhenish Palatinate, a district lying on the left bank of the Rhine, also the principality of Birkenfeld, to which the Nohefelden belonged, also those parts of the Hesse, that lie on the left bank of the Rhine and parts of the Rhineprovince, which now belong to Prussia. The distribution of the various districts to Bavaria, Hesse, Oldenburg and Prussia, goes back to the Congress of Vienna in 1815.

The list which we present covers four Oberamter, or governmental districts. That of Bargzabern, in the south-east, Zweibruecken in the south-west, Meisenheim and Lichtenberg in the north-west. The accompanying map will show the location of the chief places named. Many of the places, however, that appear in the list, are so insignificant, that they are not located on an ordinary map. Still, the general district, under which they are named, locates them approximately.

There are 404 names in our list, although the number of persons covered is considerably larger. But, as the exact number of persons in each family is not always given, it is impossible to state the total number of persons included in the list. Of the 404 persons at least 30 are women. Of the rest, 374 men, 190 are found in the Pennsylvania lists of pioneers. That is, more than half can actually be traced as having come to Pennsylvania. The others may have died on the way, or some of them may have gone to other American colonies, notably to Carolina, for which many were headed in the beginning.

In order to make the list more useful, the exact name as found in the Pennsylvania lists and the time of arrival in Philadelphia are given in smaller print immediately below the names, while statements as to their places of settlement in Pennsylvania, are given in footnotes. Let us hope that other, similar lists may soon be found, which will identify more homes, from which these sturdy pioneers came forth to venture upon the long and difficult journey to the New World, where they made a noteworthy contribution to American civilization.

Various spellings of the name Chateau:

Schatteau, Shadow, Shedo, Scheddo, Schedo, Shatow, Shattoe, Shatto, Shado, Shadow.

Pennsylvania Magazine Vol. 53. 1929 mentions Chateau as one of the Huguenot families of Lancaster Co., p. 337 says "Many of the Huguenots came with the Germans and Swiss and often exchanged their French names for equivalents." This may help to explain the variation of spelling along with spelling written down by Pennsylvania clerks. A recorder in Berks Co., Pa. writes it Schatter.

Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd. Ser., Vol. 17, p. 193 the name is spelled correctly on passsenger list of Ship "Loyal Judith" which arrived in Philadelphia, September 1739, and also the next day when he, Jean Nichol Chateau, takes the oath of Allegiance. Another Ref. Strassburger & Hinke, Vol. 1, p. 266.

Stapleton's "Memorial to the Huguenots of Pennsylvania." In the list at rear (not index) gives name of "Jan Nichol Chateau (now Shadow) in Lancaster Co., Pa." Rev. John Bucher's Church Records at Philadelphia, Pa.
Anna Margretha Shado, B. August 14, 1767, daughter of Heinrich Shado and wife Mary Catherina. Witness to baptism, Johannes Hamuth and wife, Anna Margretha.

Jean Nichol Chateau Immigrant Ancestor.

In the baptismal records of Father Schneider, of the Catholic church at Goshenhoppen, for 1744 is found the following—p. 323.

A. Barbara Chateau and Catharine, of Nicholas (Calv.) and M. EVA Chateau (R.C.) baptised August 7th. 1744 in John Molitors house near Germantown; Sponsors—A. Barbara Frederich for the former and Catharine Riffel for the latter.

From the above record we gain much. First—his wife is given here as early as 1744 as Maria Eva and proves she was the mother of all the children in 1752 and '53. It also gives the information that she was a Catholic and this undoubtedly accounts for our not being able to find their marriage and maybe some of the other baptisms. She was not a strict Catholic for we find at least two of the other children were baptised in the Lutheran church, as follows:

Lower Bermudian Church Records—Rev. Jas. Lischy, Adams Co., Pa.
Material obtained from the State Library.

5	Ursula Ch. Aug. 4, 1752	Nicholas Schedo Marie Eva	Johannes Aszper Ursula

In the baptismal records at the top of the page the name is spelled correctly Chateau which was the correct French spelling, and the note of his being a Calvanist is proof that HE was a Protestant—in other words he was a French Protestant which is a French Huguenot.

His name last appears in the part of Lancaster county that is now Dover Township, York Co. in 1797. By that time he would have been a man well advanced in years.

Henrich Schatto married to Mary Catherine Stahl April 1, 1766.

In the literature of the Chateaus we find Henrich Fredrich Shettoe and Fridrich Henrich Shattoe. I believe they were the same individual. Notice baptisms 3, 4, 5, above, wife's name the same and sponsors for 2 and 3 the same.

In the Huguenot Church of Savoye, Spring Garden, London were found among the French Marines and Soldiers serving in the American Revolution, eight men by the name of Chateau. They are from different parts of France. This shows that the Chateau is an old and widely scattered French family, some of whom embraced the Protestant faith.

George R. Bundt, S.J. Cartographer

This Cartograph shows the primitive missionary trails in Pennsylvania. Although Catholic Maryland gave religious freedom to everybody, eventually the Catholic pioneers were deprived of their rights and went northward into this beautiful country which abounds in mineral resources and fertility of the soil. For the same reason the Catholics migrated in large numbers southward from New England and New York State into the "Keystone State" of the thirteen original colonies where in Penn's Forest they found the "noble experiment" a veritable sanctuary of true peace, industry and genuine American patriotism.

The Jesuit Missionaries began their apostolic work in Maryland in the year 1634 entered Pennsylvania as early as 1720. While Mass was said in the isolated homes of the pioneer Catholics at various points along the missionary trails, the following places had chapels which became "missionary-bases" from which the Jesuits extended their priestly labors over the entire State and which historians today regard as "shrines of Catholicism" in America.

1720—Old Concord Mission (Ivy Mills)
1730—Conewago Chapel (Near Gettysburg)
1733—Dock Hill, Philadelphia
1741—Goshenhoppen (Near Reading
1742—Lancaster (Old State Capitol
1743—Haycock Run (South of Easton

INTRODUCTION and ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Information contained in this publication was compiled from a bound volume in the library of The Historical Society of York County, Pennsylvania. The volume was copied from typewritten sheets loaned by George R. Seiffert, Philadelphia, in 1932. These sheets were copied from the original manuscript in the custody of The Historical Society of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, where it is part of the Francis M. Etting Collection. The bound volume was checked for accuracy by the S.C.P.G.S. Publications Committee by comparing it with a microfilm copy of the original manuscript.

The original manuscript, labeled "Census of York County, 1762", is a listing by townships, of the rates and assessments of the inhabitants of each township. York County, in 1762, also included all townships in present day Adams County. The original manuscript provides the earlist nearly complete listing of York/Adams County "taxables" known to exist.

Portions of several pages of the original manuscript are missing. In Manchester Twp.(York Co.) approximately 16 surnames beginning with "C" thru "E" are missing, 5 surnames beginning with "G", 15 "R" thru "S" and 5 "S" thru "W". In York Twp.(York Co.) approximately 5 surnames beginning with "A", 6 "L" to "M", and 6 "R" to "S". In Reading Twp.(Adams Co.) approximately 6 surnames beginning with "S" to "T" are missing. Thus, all but approsimately 75 "taxables" of York County in 1762, are listed.

INTRODUCTION

This Special Publication is an alphabetized listing of the names found on Collector's Warrants of York County, PA, for December, 1771. Collector's Warrants are known to exist for only 18 of the townships then in existence. As with Special Publications Numbers 5,6,8, and 9, the main value of this Special Publication is as a location finding aid.

Microfilm copies of the original Warrants are available for viewing at The Historical Society of York County, York, PA, and the Wm. Penn Memorial Museum & Archives Building (PA. Historical & Museum Commission) in Harrisburg, PA.

Information and spelling given on the Warrants included in this Special Publication is as found on the originals. Where something written on an original Warrant has a line drawn through it we have included the writing and then typed a line through as in the original. The Cumberland Twp. Warrant has two illegible names(one surname beginning with "G" and one beginning with "P") that have not been included. All names on the other Warrants have been included. For a few surnames it was difficult to ascertain the exact spelling. We have included these names, but have enclosed them in parenthesis, with a question mark, to indicate that the spelling might possibly be in error.

Beauchamp.—In 1731 arrived Jean Beauchamp, (1) and wife Barbara, the head of the "Bushong" family, now so numerous in America. He located in East Lampeter, near the Heller Church. He was born in France in 1692. His son Jacob located in Berks county and was the head of the Bushong family of Berks county, while another son, Peter, emigrated to the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia, and founded the Southern branch. There was also a Jacob Bouchon in York county prior to 1755.

Pons.—Several Protestant branches of the DePons family located in Lancaster county at an early day. In France the family is of noble rank and has given many illustrious names to history. Jacques Pons was an eminent Huguenot divine. Another notable personage was Mareshal DePons who was the French minister to the court of Prussia in 1772. At the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes one branch of the family fled for safety to Offenbach, in the Palatinate, and from whence several members came to Pennsylvania. Jacque in 1727, Augustus in 1738, and Abraham in 1751.

Ranc (Ranck).—This family was prominent in the French Protestant Church, and one of this name sealed his faith with his life. This was Rev. Louis Ranc, pastor of the church at Die, who suffered death in 1745. The ancestors of the American branch were the brothers John Michael Ranc, who arrived in 1728, and John Philip Ranc who arrived a year later. They came from Alsace, and both located in Lancaster county. During the war of Independence the Ranc family was especially noted for its patriotism, and nearly all its members capable of bearing arms were in the war.

Litiz.—In 1742 Count Zinzendorf founded the Moravian Society of Litiz, in Lancaster county. Connected with this community were a number of members who were of Huguenot origin, of whom were the following: Rev. Philip Meurer, who was born in Alsace, and came to Pennsylvania in 1742. He died in Donegal in 1759. Henry Haller, born in Alsace in 1719, arrived in 1733, and was the father of the distinguished Colonel Henry Haller of the Revolution. Daniel Heckendorn from Alsace, 1736, father of an honorable posterity, and who died in 1782, and Daniel Lecrone prior to 1750.

In Warwick township, in the vicinity of Brickerville, were located the following: Jacques Simonett, who arrived in 1727. He was then well advanced in years. His warrantee for land is dated 1733, in which year the name of Isaac also appears, who was doubtless a son. Nicholas Parrett, 1730, Jacques and Herman

(1). Jean Beauchamp's family consisted of John, Philip, Peter, Henry, Jacob, David, Mary, Barbara and Elisabeth.

SHATTO

LaTour, 1749. The latter died in 1774. Martin Oberlin in 1730, with sons, John Michael and John Adam. The Oberlins are distinguished in the history of France, notably the Reformer of Ban-de-la- Roche, (1) who was a relative of the Pennsylvania Oberlins.

In Cocalico appears the name of Sebastian Coquelin, who arrived in 1739 with his family, of whom Jean and Dietrich were adults. The name has been perverted to "Cockly" and "Cocklin." John and George Achey, Francis Dutill, Leonard, John and Jacob Mumma and the Guilliaume family, (Williams), all of whom appear about the middle of the century.

Among others of Huguenot antecedents who located within the bounds of Lancaster county were the following: Henry Bleim who died in 1739; Pierre Delone, John Detar, Casperius Viellard, Jean Jacques Lapierre. This name was early Germanized to "Stein," (Stone), with the result that most of the descendants are unaware of their Huguenot ancestry. Jacques Duey (Dewy), Jean and Paul LeCene, the former was born in 1686, and the latter in 1688, and died 1766; Jacques LeJune, changed soon after arrival to its English equivalent "Young," several of the Martine family, John Michael Motter (originally Motteur), Jean Hotel, Francis Peter Laurans, who died in 1758, Laurans Pierson, Pierre Armeson came in 1753 and died in 1774, James Picquart, who died in 1749, Pierre Fleury, who came in 1732, Jean Chateau (now Shadow), John Jacob Laschet (Lawshe). Then also the families Mercier, Roque (Rockey), Deshong, Rosher and Raquet.

(1). Jean Frederick Oberlin (1740-1826), a distinguished minister of Alsace, who in 1766 became pastor of the Stein-thal or Ban-de-la-Roche, a wild mountainous region. The manner in which he effected the moral and industrial revolution of the valley was wonderful indeed.

GUIDE to WARRANTS and PATENTS in PRESENT YORK and ADAMS COUNTIES, PENNSYLVANIA

INTRODUCTION

Anyone who has ever tried to do research into the early land records of Adams and York Counties knows how difficult it can be. The purpose of this Guide is to enhance such a research project by making it easier to find a warrantee or patentee.

A warrant was a document ordering the surveyor general to survey a certain amount of land in a particular location.

A patent was a document executed as the final step in the process of land ownership; it was evidence that the land had been paid for and conveyed legal title to the described tract.

Because people had settled on unwarranted land, and for the purposes of this Guide unwarranted land on the west side of the Susquehanna River, a process for accepting applications was carried out from August 1766 to August 1769; these applications are enumerated in the West Side Applications.

For anyone wanting more information on land records, the following book is recommended: Pennsylvania Land Records: A History and Guide for Research by Donna Bingham Munger, published in 1991 in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission by Scholarly Resources, Inc., of Wilmington, DE.

More than 100 years ago, the people in charge of land records in Pennsylvania -- hundreds of thousands of copies -- knew that these records needed to be organized in a fashion that would make them useable. They decided to organize them by warrant (the first claims for a particular piece of land) resulting in the Warrant Register which lists the information on warrants, surveys and patents, and gives the location for finding the documents in the Pennsylvania State Archives. Although this register lists the warrantees alphabetically (by only the first letter of the surname), the patentees for a particular piece of land are listed under the land for which the warrant was issued; therefore, finding the patentee is a very long and laborious process.

The source documents for this Guide are:

Pennsylvania State Archives WARRANT REGISTER
the portions pertaining to Adams County, York County, and those parts of Lancaster County which are now in Adams or York Counties.

West Side Applications
the portions pertaining to Adams and York Counties.

In these source documents, the following information is displayed in columns:

Because of the mixture of sources, location of names within sources, and the counties involved, a scheme was developed to identify where the names could be found. The following examples should help the researcher understand the scheme used.

Adams County - Warrantee Example a number of 1 or more digits followed by the letter "a"

ALEXANDER
 Robert        3 a
^              ^ ^
|              | |
"A" portion    # Adams County

This listing means that Robert ALEXANDER was a warrantee in Adams County and can be found as #3 in the "A" portion of Adams County in the Warrant Register.

Adams County - Patentee Example a number of 1 or more digits followed by the letter "a" plus one other letter

STERNER
 John          31 a c
               ^  ^ ^
               |  | |_____the "C" portion of warrantees
               |  |
               #  Adams County

This listing means that John STERNER was a patentee in Adams County and can be found as #31 in the "C" portion of Adams County in the Warrant Register.

York County - Warrantee Example a number of 1 or more digits followed by the letter "y"

    ANDERSON
     Michael        5  y
    ^               ^  ^
    |               |  |
   "A" portion      #  York County

This listing means that Michael ANDERSON was a warrantee in York County and can be found as #5 in the "A" portion of York County in the Warrant Register.

York County - Patentee Example a number of 1 or more digits followed by the letter "y" plus one other letter

    McCREERY
     David         75  y  i
                   ^   ^  ^
                   |   |  |____ the "i" portion of warrantees
                   #   York County

This listing means that David McCREERY was a patentee in York County and can be found as #75 in the "i" portion of York County in the Warrant Register.

Lancaster County - Warrantee Example a number of 1 or more digits
now Adams or York followed by the letter "x"

    MOTHLAND
     Hugh          649 x
    ^              ^   ^
    |              |   |
   "M" portion     #   Lancaster (now Adams or York) County

This listing means that Hugh MOTHLAND was a warrantee in Lancaster County (in an area that is now part of Adams or York County) and can be found as #649 in the "M" portion of Lancaster County in the Warrant Register.

Lancaster County - Patentee Example a number of 1 or more digits now Adams or York followed by the letter "x" plus one other letter

    HOUCK
     Philip L.     398 x b
                   ^   ^ ^
                   |   | |____the "b" portion of warrantees
                   |   |
                   #   Lancaster (now Adams or York) County

This listing means that Philip L. HOUCK was a patentee in Lancaster County (in an area that is now part of Adams or County) and can be found as #398 in the "b" portion of Lancaster County in the Warrant Register.

Adams County - Applicant Example a number of 1 or more digits
West Side Applications followed by the letters "waa"

Some additional notes to aid your research:

The Adams County Historical Society has the Warrant Register and West Side Applications on microfilm.

The Adams County Historical Society has a microfilm listing of warrants in chronological order, 1733 to 1759. So, for example, if the date (or even approximate date) is known, but the researcher is unsure of the name, the warrant could be located using this chronological listing.

The Adams County Historical Society has thousands of copies of surveys, filed alphabetically by township.

In this Guide, only surnames are capitalized and, conversely, all capitalized names are surnames.

Look for alternate spellings of names. Some names are known to be spelled differently but are listed here as they appear in the source documents.

If you are looking at an entry at the end of a column, do make sure you also look at the beginning of the next column because that name may be continued.

Dear Shatto Cousins:

Here is some documentary info on two of the persons identified as brother-in-laws of Jean Nicholas Chateau, Sr. in an e-mail I received much earlier from Donald Derr concerning NICOL CHATEAU & MARIA of Lettweiller, Germany as the speculative parents (and siblings) of Jean Nicholas Chateau Sr. based on work by Erold C. Wiscombe.

Two of JN Sr's siblings are identified as 1) Maria Elizabeth w/o Johann Adam Maurer and 2) Anna Barbara w/o Anthony Keller who emigrated to North America in 1740 aboard the Loyal Judith - a year after Jean Nicholas Sr. came.

I just received the passenger list of this voyage of the Loyal Judith from which I am reproducing the names of the two men but not the entire list. The women were not recorded.

Strassburger, Ralph Beaver and William John Hinke (ed.) "Pennsylvania German Pioneers", Vol. I , (reprint by Picton Press, Camden, Maine, 1992), pp. 282-286

"[List 78 A] A List of All the Mens Names and [ages] on board the Ship Loyal Judith, Captn Lov[ell Paynter] [Qualified Nov. 25, 1740]

Anthony Keller	30
Adam Mouere	32

Sworn that the foregoing is a true List to the best of my knowledge, before the Honble the Governor, the 25th Nov. 1740   Lovell Paynter

[List 78 B] [Palatines imported in the Ship Loyal Judith, Lovell Paynter, Comr from Rotterdam. Qualified Nov. 25th, 1740]

Anthony (X) Keller
Adam (O) Mowrer

[List 78 C] At the Court House in Philada, Novr 25th, 1740 Present: The Honb George Thomas, Esqr, Governor, Samuel Hassell, Esqr, Mayor of Philada. The Palatines whose Names are underwritten, imported on the Ship Loyal Judith, Lovell Paynter, Commander, from Rotterdam, but last from Deal -- did this day take and subscribe the foregoing Qualifications or Oaths to the Government.

Anthony (X) Keller
Adam (O) Maurer"

Does anyone have any evidence about the two sisters Maria Elizabeth and Anna Barbara being aboard??

Regards,   Barry Michie

Subject: William Shatto 1890 Biographical Sketch
Content-Type: text/plain; charset=ISO-8859-1
Content-Transfer-Encoding: 7bit

Dear All (and thank you Theresa Berg for showing me how to do this)

Attached below is my note page William Shatto (1815-1891, b. Perry Co., PA) s/o David Shatto (c. 1781-1841) s/o Jean Nicholas Shatto, Jr.

The first note is from his tombstone.

The second is a biographical sketch that has a lot of information about his ancestors, lineage, wife's family, his siblings and spouses, children, etc., places of residence, movements, etc. The Revolutionary War info on Jean Nicholas has not been verified independently despite some tries. Also, a few dates are off. As this was written down from William Shatto in the 1890's, this is an account just about 110 years closer to what a lot of us are looking for. I am a descendent of Harvey Leigh Shatto, mentioned as one of William's children, married but still at the homestead. The Sarah Boyer mentioned as wife of Harvey Leigh Shatto is a descendent of Ludwig Miller, R.S., of Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., PA, whose ancestory traces back to a couple of generations in the Zwiebrucken region in Germany.

Enjoy, Barry Michie - Manhattan, Kansas

" William Shatto, one of the most honored pioneers of Washington County, settled in Linn Township at a very early date, and when few white men had ventured into this region. He took up a tract of land and for a few years labored early and late in its cultivation and improvement and practised the most rigid economy in order to make both ends meet. He erected buildings, planted fruit and shade trees, and gradually gathered around himself and family all the comforts of life. Now sitting under his own vine and fig tree, he can look over the past with a measure of satisfaction, feeling that he has not lived in vain. He has watched the growth and development of Northwest Kansas, with that warm interest only felt by her adopted sons, having contributed his full quota to the prosperity and well-being of the commonwealth which struggled up through many difficulties to its present position.

A native of Perry County, Pa., our subject was born Nov. 17, 1814, and is the son of David Shatto, a native of York County, that State, and who died in 1843. The paternal grandfather was Nicholas Shatto, who was born in France, and was the son of a French Hugenot. Grandfather Shatto crossed the ocean with his father when a lad of six years and later served as a soldier in the Revolutionary War, being one of the body-guard of Gen. Washington from the beginning to the end of that great struggle. After the independence of the colonies had been established, he settled in Perry County, Pa., where he spent the remainder of his life, dying at the advanced age of ninety-six years. He married a lady who was of Swiss and Holland-Dutch extraction, and she also is supposed to have spent her last days in the Keystone State, dying at the age of ninety-four years."

David Shatto, the father of our subject, was a wood-mechanic, and farmer combined -- in fact, followed various vocations, being possessed of uncommon genius and able to turn his hand to almost anything in his line. When establishing a home of his own, he was married to Miss Julia Ann Gardner, whose family consisted of twelve daughters and two sons. To David and Julia Ann Shatto were born eight children, five sons and three daughters, four of whom are living: William, of this sketch, was the eldest of the family, and the other survivors are: John, Rebecca, (Mrs. Clem) and Sarah (Mrs. Howell). David, deceased, was a resident of Davis County, Mo. John is a traveling dentist, operating in Pennsylvania. Rebecca and Sarah live in the vicinity of Green Spring, Ohio.

The subject of this notice spent his boyhood and youth at the old homestead in his native county and there also became the head of a household of his own. He was married March 1, 1838, to Miss Rebecca Boyd, daughter of Thomas Boyd, who is now deceased. Mrs. Shatto is likewise a native of Perry County, Pa., and was born Oct. 2, 1818. Her union with our subject resulted in the birth of ten children, seven of whom are living: Jeremiah J. married Miss Josephine Daugherty; they live in Emmett County, Mich., and have five children - Jay, May, Sylvia, Alonzo and Emma. Margaret E. is the wife of Abraham Hanselman of Kimeo Township, Kan., and they have four children - Junia, Mary, George and William Garfield. Issac N. married Miss Rachael Kelley; they live in Sherman Township and have seven children - David L., Hollis, Easton, Louverne, Uba J., Lois and Freby. Harriet S. is the wife of John Morgan of Northwest Township, Williams Co., Ohio; their only child is deceased. William L. married Miss Jane Patterson, and lives in Tustin, Los Angeles Co., Cal; they have two children - Edith M. and Ethel R. Emma A. is the wife of Zibeon Field of Santa Clara, Cal., and they have four children - Clara, Gertrude, Alma and Bernice. Harvey L. married Miss Sarah Boyer; they have two children - Jennie and Florence and live at the home farm.

Mr. Shatto, in 1850, left Pennsylvania and removed to Crawford County, Ohio, where he sojourned until 1854. That year he pushed on further westward into Steuben County, Ind., and from there in 1870 crossed the Mississippi and took up his abode in Davis Co., Mo. He only staid there until the fall of 1871, coming thence to Kansas and settling on his present farm of 160 acres. Upon this there were no improvements, with the exception of a small shanty, no fences, and not a tree upon the place. The original claimant had broken fourteen and one-half acres, then left discouraged, for parts unknown. Mr. Shatto, however, had come to stay and was prepared for every emergency. He experienced the usual hardships and privations of pioneer life, but in due time met with his reward.

While a resident of Indiana, Mr. Shatto cleared 260 acres of land, much of which was covered with heavy timber - this work being done for other people. He had full experience of the labor of hewing, timber, rolling logs, grubbing out the stumps, pulling dogwood, and worked so hard during the day and read so much at night that he came very near losing the use of his eyes. He partially recovered his sight through treatment at Dr. Ebert's Infirmary, at Cleveland, Ohio. The family lived in Indiana during the progress of the Civil War, and the two sons, Jeremiah and Newton, served four and two years respectively, in the Union army. Both of them participated in many hard fought battles but came out without a scratch. The company of which Jeremiah was a member went into the battle of Shiloh, eighty-six strong and came out with but eighteen men left. Newton was at Franklin and Nashville, Tenn., also at Lookout Mountain and in other minor engagements.

Politically, Mr. Shatto uniformly supports the principles of the Republican party. He voted for William Henry Harrison in 1840, and with equal enthusiasm for his grandson Benjamin Harrison in 1888. He is a member of the Washington County Association, composed of men who voted for the two Harrisons, nearly fifty in number in this county alone. The old veterans a short time since were photographed by a local artist, forming an interesting group. Mr. Shatto has never pined for the responsibilities of office, but keeps himself well-posted upon matters of general interest. He finds his religious home in the Methodist Episcopal Church, to which all his family belong, except the two children in California who are Adventists."

Hi Shatto Cousins:

Things have been fairly quiet. Have been going through messages I have received to digest some of the information I have received from you all.

One thing of great interest is the one Donald Derr sent me as part of a bunch of old messages he had before I joined. This is prefaced with the warning that this family is speculative but data suggests the following:

Nicol Chateau and Maria of Lettweiler, Pfalz, Germany,
Children are:
Heinrich Adam Schatto b. abt 1693, m. Maria
Jean Nicol b. ??, m to Maria Eva
Maria Elisabeth b. ?? , m. Johann Adam Maurer 8 July 1730

Looking at it I am inclined to interpret this information as the parents of Jean Nicholas Chateau, Sr. and his siblings. Is that other peoples' understanding?

Has anyone followed up on this? Two researchers' names from whom this information came are mentioned: Dale J.J. Leppard and Erold C. Wiscombe. Are these people in the discussion group? How might they be contacted for more information?

Where do we go from here in nailing down some of this "speculative" material and perhaps first off:

The passenger list for the LOYAL JUDITH in 1740 for Maria Elizabeth Chateau and Anna Barbara Chateau who I suppose are Jean Nicholas's sisters.

The document for Anna Barbara and her husband as witnesses "for one of Nicholas kids. Lower Bermudian Church, Adams, PA"?

Regards, Barry

David,

You did not say, but hopefully you will Join our Shatto mail list. There is no cost. Below is a copy of the response that I have received from the list. This is only speculation on Barry's part. Barry is fairly new at Genealogy, but he has lots of Shatto information because his mother worked on the Shatto's for many years and he has access to her files. I would not be surprised if Barry Michie doesn't connect to the same branch as you. I will have to take some time to work on that.

A JEDCOM file is a file that let you work between different genealogy programs without retyping in all of the data. Do you have a Genealoty Program, and if so which one?

Attachments cannot be sent through the list, but short JEDCOM files in text format cam be sent.

Per Clara Milligan of Laclede, MO Catherine b. 21 Dec 1856, and married George Grim in Sullivan 18 Dec 1853, is the daughter of Daniel Shatto and Catherine Stitle(??spelling). Daniel substituted for Adam Shatto in the War of 1812. While to date we have not proven it, we believe that Adam was probably a brother of Daniel, and both sons of John Shatto and Mary Shade.

The family of John Shatto and Mary Shade is speculated to be:

Adam Shatto, the first to go to Ohio probably to homestead land.
Daniel Shatto, Served in the War of 1812 for Adam above.
John Shatto, Stay in PA maybe in the parents old home.
Henry Shatto,
Nicholas Shatto,
Jacob Shatto,
Elizabeth Shatto,
Ephraim Shatto, helped support John and Mary Shatto until they died in Trumbull Co., OH. When Ephraim Shatto died one of his under age sons was assigned a gardian that was ?? Jacob Flick, a likely descendant of Mary Shade's sister. The Flicks were also in Trumbull Co., OH, as was one of the other Shatto lines.

Sorry, but I am haveing problems with extracting from my Shatto Database file, but one of these days I hope to be able to work it out.

Barry's response follows;

Dear David:

Welcome to the discussion group.  There are a number of Catherine Shattos
but you will need some help form the others as for most all I have is parentage and dates.  Whether or not they were born in Ohio is a problem for me.

1. There is a Catherine E. Shatto (1833- ??) d/o Abraham Shatto &
Elizabeth
Shearer.  This I got from Theresa Berg who got it, maybe, from Donald Derr.

2. Also, Ephraim Shatto (who spelled it Shadow) moved from PA to Ohio.
But not Catherine listed.  Does anyone have more children than the following, and is the marriage date correct??

Ephraim Shadow s/o David Shatto & Julia Ann Gardner
b.  1822  Perry Co., PA
m. 31 Aug 1847 (???) Crawford Co. Ohio to Amy Brown
children:
Amanda M. b. 1844
William A.   b. 1848
David N.      b. 1850

3. The same above David Shatto had a daughter Catherine but she was born
&
died in Perry Co. PA.

4.  Catharine Shatto (no dates) d/o Jacob Shatto (1813-1891) & Mary M.
Smith

These are the possibilities.  Someone else jump in and help out.

Regards,  Barry Michie

OHIO 1835 TAX DUPLICATE

MCBRIDE

GERALD M. PETTY, COMPILER

PETTY'S PRESS
COLUMBUS, OHIO

1987

An index should not need any explanation, but this index requires a lengthy one.

It contains the name of every person listed in the Ohio 1835 tax duplicates, a three-letter code for the county and a three-letter code for the township. If a third set of three letters appears, that is for the village, incorporation, town, etc. The above is followed by a one or two character description of the information available in the original tax records and the page number. This index was prepared from the original ledgers.

The abbreviations for counties, townships, etc. are given in Table 1. This information is also reproduced on the inside of the front and back covers. Perhaps one third to one half of the tax duplicates did not have page numbers; therefore, no page numbers appear on the microfilm copies. For use with this index, I have numbered them.

INFORMATION in the ORIGINAL. The 1835 Original Tax Duplicates have recorded the following: Range, Township, Section; Number of Lot; Value of Land, houses, factories; State and Canal Tax; County and school tax; Township Tax; Total. Example: Pike Co, Seal Twp. was assessed 1 1/2 mills for State and Canal Tax; 5 mills for County and school tax; 1 mill for township tax; 7 1/2 mills total. Pike Co townships were all assessed the same tax with the exception of Beaver twp. paying NO township tax and Camp Creek twp. paying two mills township tax. Type of Tax Record code follows:

A. Range, township, section (at least one).
B. Lot or Virginia Military District of Ohio (hereafter VMDO) entry numbers.
C. A+B, also A with subdivision of sections. Usually this subdivision entry is NW 1/4, E 1/2, for example; occasionally it is a "fraction" or "part".
D. Location within the county is not given.
E. Error: usually no taxes are assessed. This includes land being paid for in installments to the Federal Government, that was not taxed until the final installment was paid. It also includes land that was to be sold for delinquent taxes. There may have been other reasons.
F. Lawyers, usually listed at the end of twp.
G. Doctors, usually listed at the end of twp.
H. Professional persons, not otherwise identified. Could be lawyers or doctors, too.
L. Livestock (horses, cattle), money loaned at interest, capital for manufacture or merchandise. (Lists that contain L entries are very fragmentary).
5. Original proprietors. In the VMDO, the entry number, and often the original acreage, are given.
7. Delinquent taxpayers, if they were in a separate list. Most delinquent taxpayers' names were scattered throughout the tax lists. Some had "D" at the extreme left, or elsewhere; other marks were used.
8. Names entered, for a wide variety of reasons, in any column except those reserved for names of taxpayers or original proprietors. Most of these names are in the right-hand column, under "comments", etc.
9. County auditors.
'. More than one parcel of land, or more than one line in the ledger (usually a partnership) is entered for one owner. In a few instances, all the parcels on one page were owned by one person or partnership.
". More than one parcel of land, but with parcels that belonged to other taxpayers listed between them. Some of these may have been father and son, or cousins. "means you should read every name on a pg.
+. After the units (page) column, a plus indicates that an original proprietor's name occurs also on later pages in that county. Large tracts of land owned by the original proprietors had been subdivided much earlier than 1835 into smaller parcels or lots. The information about the original proprietor usually does not change from one entry to another, unless he owned more than one original entry. The original proprietor column was often crowded; this led to the frequent use of initials, and to some difficulty in deciphering names.

A,B. In the hundreds column of the page numbers, indicate more than one page with that number. These letter-number combination do not appear in any original, therefore in no microfilm copy.

CHANGES FROM the ORIGINAL.As far as possible, an attempt was made to use the original spelling. A temptation to enter what the scribe intended,rather that what he wrote was usually, but not always, resisted. An ampersand (&) was inserted between names of partners. (Absence of punctuation, in the original can result in misinterpretations). Many abbreviations were standardized in this index such as Jr., Sr., Esq., est., dec'd., etc. A few abbreviations were entered, as found, including some that could not be interpreted by me.

CROSS REFERENCES. There are about 6000 cross references, in the index, all identified by "see". Most of them, (perhaps 90%) refer to partnerships,but partnerships between persons with the same surname were not cross-indexed. When there was an apparent error in spelling, and when a surname could be interpreted more than one way, two cross references, one each direction, were prepared. Some of these refer to "blind" entries, or nonexisting (in this list) surnames. An attempt was made to eliminate all blind entries.

TABLES. Table I is the abbreviations used for counties, townships, and incorporations, each being represented by a three-letter code. These abbreviations are also reproduced on the front and back cover.

Table 11 is a list of the jurisdictional histories for Ohio's 88 counties as compiled by W. Louis Phillips, C.G. (available from Heritage Books, Inc., Bowie, MD).

GENERAL. Most of the script in the original Tax Duplicates was quite legible. Some comments recorded during compilation were:

Clinton Co. Many numbers are difficult. Some pages are badly faded.

Coshocton Co. Positioning of columns is most irregular.

Delaware Co. The delinquent taxpayer is noted throughout the taxpayer lists.

Fairfield Co. The first line for a continued listing ends "(or same)". When a name occurs on adjacent pages, the given name is often spelled out first, then abbreviated there after.

Guernsey Co. 1834 Tax Duplicates used.Capital letters very ornamental making it difficult to decipher.

Hamilton Co. David and Daniel were difficult to distinguish.

Highland Co. The script is very difficult. It is not always alphabeted. For L entries,cows and horses are given, but the assessment is not entered.

Hocking Co. Unusually legible script.

Jefferson Co. 1836 Tax Duplicates used.

I paged this book.The microfilm copy is not paged.

Knox Co. The ink varies from badly faded to bright.

Muskingum Co. In Wayne Twp, there is a salt section. Delinquents are entered at the end of each township.

Perry Co.Edward was written as Ewdward.Script is frequently difficult.

Preble Co. Distillers, tanners and saw mills are grouped at the end of each township. Every page is numbered,instead of every other page. The surname " Alexander" is sometimes abbreviated, but it is spelled out here. The quality of the script is very erratic.

Putnam Co. No towns appeared in the records. Every page was numbered.

Ross Co. The last numbered page was 176. Arm and Ann were indistinguishable. On page 84, the school tax,on lands owned by colored persons, was deducted.

Scioto Co. Page 8 is badly faded. Delinquents names are badly faded on the original.

Stark Co. No list of doctors nor lawyers. Margant is equal to Margaret.

Washington Co. Wesley Twp was especially difficult to decipher. Delinquents appeared at the end of each township.

TROUBLESHOOTING. I hope you find the name you seek. If you do not: 1) Change each of the vowels, one at a time. 2) Read every name. John may be William John, etc. Cadwell THOMAS may appear as Thomas CADWELL. Jas and Jos are often confused. 3) Look for variant spellings and misspellings,e.g.,Rhodes,Rodes, Roads; Campbell, Campele, Cambell, Camel(1), Opple, Apple; Noel, Gnowl, Knowl, etc. Phonetic spelling was used widely by the clerks. Spell the name phonetically as many ways as you can think of. Frequently,the scribes were told to "put down something that sounds like it". 4) The fact that all surnames beginning with the same letter were grouped together in the original tax duplicates makes the first letter in a surname highly reliable, more so than in the census records. Lower-case letters can become troublesome, however. Some letters and combinations that can lead to errors include:

a	ce, d
b	g, le, li
ce	a
ch	dr
m	ns, rn
n	r, rr, sc, x
ns	m
p	fs
d	a, el
dr	ch
ee	er, 8
el	d
er	ee,u
ev	w
f	p, ph, s
h	le
ij	y
le	b, h, li
li	b, le
ph	f
r	n, s, v
rr	n
rv	w
s	f, p, r, x
sc	n, x
u	ee, er
w	ev, rv
x	n, s, sc, se
y	ij

5) The final letter in a name frequently defies all rules. Look at all the names with the same prior letters, and compare the results. If possible, compare the surname with a city directory.

Most of the above suggestions are applicable to any name index.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS. I deeply appreciate the courtesies extended to me by the staff of the Manuscript Division of the Ohio Historical Society, Columbus,where I was able to use the original tax duplicates; the Instruction and Research Computer Center at the Ohio State University, Columbus, and Mr. Richard J. Hopkins of the History Department at the Ohio State University. I am grateful to W. Louis Phillips, C.G., P.O. Box 24111, Columbus OH 43224, for permission to use his "Jurisdictional Histories for Ohio's 88 Counties(1788-present).

I appreciate the work done by Mr. Joseph A. Damico who prepared and executed the computer programs at the Ohio State University. I am grateful to Carol Bell for her assistance. And, to Margaret Scott,a special thanks, because without her, there would be no book. After ten years of working on this project, and with completion within sight, I became ill and am now directing the finish of this at my bedside.

TRUMBULL COUNTY

OHIO

CADASTRAL OR LAND OWNERSHIP MAPS

1830 — 1840 — 1850

INTRODUCTION

These cadastral,or land ownership, maps were drawn up with the owners listed; along with the acreage each owned, for tax purposes. They graphically depict not only the location of the land owned by an ancestor, but also name the neighboring landowners. Migration was usually by groups of families who settled in fairly close proximity to one another. These neighboring families possibly migrated from an earlier place of residence with your ancestor. They may have intermarried, so a search of the neighbors may result in finding the maiden name of a female ancestor.

This publication started with a promise to reproduce an 1840 Atlas of Trumbull County which was donated to the Warren-Trumbull County Library by a member, Mildred Force. The Atlas was in deteriorating condition and would not withstand much handling. It was discovered that the map department of the courthouse had many of these maps redrawn and easier to read.

While copying the 1840 maps, it was found there were many maps in this collection from Map Book #I. Research showed these to be circa 1830 so they were copied and added to the original plan for publication. Unfortunately, none of the townships presently in Mahoning County had been redrawn so older copies had to be found.

Mr. John Burger, another member, then added maps, which he assumed to be for 1850, to the collection for publication. These maps were in all probability drawn about the time of the formation of Mahoning County and the taking off of the two lower tiers of townships which were annexed to that county in 1846. For the sake of continuity we are calling them, 1850.

There is no map for Bloomfield Township in the 1830 collection as the map for that township was a woodland map, showing only the type of trees growing on each division-no names were recorded. Oddly enough, that was the only township found recorded in that manner.

The initials listed without further names have been recorded without attempting to place the initial of the surname first. They have been recorded as found.

Some of the names written on the early maps (1830) are very faint and hardly legible. They are in a different handwriting than the main body of the map. These have been indexed when they were legible enough for us to copy. Some were impossible to read, some we were not sure of --in the latter case we have placed a question mark. These names, in many cases have been written over or crossed out. However, if readable, were included in the index.

In reading these maps, the handwriting was often difficult to read with any degree of accuracy and many times it was obvious letters had been omitted. These were copied as found. The letters i could have been mistaken for a j, h could have been mistaken for a k, L could have been an S, or vice versa.

We must ask you to use your own judgement in reading the names which may be more familiar to you than to those doing the indexing.

EARLY MARRIAGES

OF

TRUMBULL COUNTY, OHIO

1800 - 1865

As

Compiled By

Mrs. Roscoe Winnagle

EDITED, ARRANGED AND PUBLISHED BY THE TRUMBULL COUNTY CHAPTER OF THE OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

1775085

FORWARD

The Trumbull County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society was formed to assist members in their personal research, to collect, preserve and publish Trumbull County Records. This is the first publication offered to the public by the Chapter.

These Trumbull County Marriages were copied by the late Mrs. Roscoe Winnagle from the original Probate Record Books. Marriages were recorded in Probate Marriage Books after the formation of the State of Ohio in 1803. Those prior to that date were recorded in Book A of the Deed Books.

The marriages were copied originally in chronological order and usually gave the name of the person performing the marriage, either a Minister or a Justice of the Peace. Sometimes the Township of residence was given. The date used was the date of the license, often followed by the date of the return by the person performing the marriage.

To conserve space, only the name of the groom, followed by the date and the name of the bride is published. Other information may be gotten from the Probate Office for Trumbull County, Ohio.

All names of the grooms are in alphabetical order followed by a separate index for the brides.

Members of the Trumbull County Chapter who worked on the copying and alphabetizing are: Bernice Simon, Ethel Everett, Bertha Phillis, Carol Bell and Luetta Coates. All typing was done by Luetta Coates.

woody banks and verdant valleys, the river helps to make a scene of picturesque loveliness. Mill creek waters the southwestern quarter of the township. One of its tributaries has the suggestive name of Turkey Broth. Turkey Broth creek is a small stream rising in the northeastern part of the township, and flowing southwesterly until it reaches Mill creek. Several small runs empty into it.

The land of Berlin is mostly very nearly level, and consists of a succession of broad swells with wide and very slight depressions intervening. The surface is so nearly uniform that an observer, upon almost any of the gentle rises of land, can obtain a view of nearly all parts of the township. The soil is deep and fertile; very little clay or sand, but a good strong loam, well adapted to fruits and cereals. A traveler along almost any of the roads in the township can scarcely fail to note and admire the beautiful fields on every hand.

Berlin center, a straggling settlement of twenty or more houses, is the only village, and is pleasantly situated on a slight elevation a short distance east of the geographical center of the township.

Belvidere, where Schilling's mill is located, advanced far enough toward the dignity of a village to receive a name, and apparently its ambition was satisfied. Shelltown in the northeast is a thickly settled community. At Christy's corners, in the southwestern part of the township, quite an extensive business has been carried on for a number of years in the manufacture of pottery.

The township was but sparsely settled until about 1824 for the reason that the greater portion of the land was not offered for sale until that time.

ORGANIZATION.

The township, which for several years had been a part of Ellsworth, was erected a separate township and election precinct by the county commissioners in March, 1828.

THE FIRST ELECTION

of township officers took place at the schoolhouse near the center April 7, 1828, Matthias Glass, Salmon Hall, and Joseph Stall being judges of election, and Peter Musser and Joseph H. Coult, clerks. The following officers were elected: Nathan Minard, Thompson Craig, Samuel Kauffman, trustees; Salmon Hall, treasurer; Joseph H. Coult, clerk; John Stuart, constable; William Kirkpatrick, Christian Kauffman overseers of the poor; Joseph Davis, Joseph Leonard fence viewers; Edward Fankle, Benjamin Misner, Abraham Craft, supervisors.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

In 1828 the township was divided into four school districts. Four years later the number had increased to nine. The old township records give the following names of the inhabitants of the four school districts in 1829. Where the name is illegible in the old book, or where the spelling is of doubtful authenticity, a question mark (?) is placed after the name:

District Number One.—Joshua Minard, John Vosburg, William Kirkpatrick, Edward Fankle, John Crumrine, John Ween (?), Benjamin Leonard, Nathan Minard, Adam Morningstar, Henry Morningstar, Adam Morningstar, Jr., John Ludwick, John Kimmel.

District Number Two.—John Smith, Henry Powell, William Bishop, Ephraim Horner, Elisha Fogg, Adna B. Silver, Joseph Huntley, Enoch Sharpe, Isaac Sharpe, Hoffman Brown, James Ramsey, Jacob Strong, John Shatto (?), David Parshall, Henry Houck, Joseph Davis, John Thomas, Samuel Leonard, John Leonard, Joseph Leonard, Jacob Starling, Isaac Phipps, Andrew Hull, Joseph Poll (?), Peter Helsel, Joseph H. Coult.

District Number Three.—George Ripple, Eli Rush, John Craig, James Packard, John Carter, John Stump (?), William Parker, Eleanor Packard, George Boom (Baum ?), Jacob Welty, William Leonard, George Foster, Abraham Craft, John Foster, Salmon Hall, John Best, Henry Rummell, John Rummell.

District Number Four.—Daniel Myer, John Rummell, John Phillips, Jonathan King, John Cline, Peter Glass, Adam Schilling, David Misner, Samuel Misner, Samuel Phillips, Phillip Wise (?), Jacob Stump, Henry Fulk, Matthias Swartz, Benjamin Misner, George Hartzell, Abraham Hawn, William Glass, Christian Kauffman, Samuel Kauffman, David Mauen (?), William Mell, Jacob Eib, Matthias Glass, Adam Zedaker, Daniel Greenamyer, Peter Musser, Moses Ross, Jacob Greenamyer, James Winans, James Byers, William Stull (?), Emmanuel Hull.

This is doubtless a complete list of the prop-

Moses M'CLEAN has a negro female for sale, a slave for life, about 32 yrs of age, healthy and stout, well acquainted with business, has 3 female children.

Lost on road from York to Peach-bottom, a deed or conveyance, by Nathaniel MORGAN to Alexander DOWNING.

Jacob SITTLER, having notified the creditors of Francis JONES to bring in their accounts to him, has postponed the time of settlement.

Whereas Nicholas MARSCHALL, obtained a bond of the subscriber for the sum of 55 pounds with security, which bond he gave for and in the name of his step-son Michael GENTZLER, now absent, for a pretended debt of like sum, which said Marschall, as it appears, fraudulently claimed of said Gentzler. And whereas, he has since been informed that the said Gentzler, did only receive a very inconsiderable part thereof, but that he was remarkably cheated when he was in liquor, by the said Marschall. The subscriber therefore forewarns persons from taking assignment on said bond. Nicholas BENTZ, Cordorus twp.

NEWTON.

BY HON. JOHN McCURDY.

This township was organized in 1767. In form it is wedge-shaped, l is bounded along its entire northern end by the Conodoguinet, western side by Hopewell and Southampton townships, and its by Penn and West Pennsborough; the lines forming the sides uniting at a point on the South mountain. The greater tion of the land when properly treated and cultivated is highly ductive. In the southern portion, extending some two or three miles in a northerly direction from the base of the mountain, are the pine lands. They are an admixture of clay and gravel, and are said to be amongst the surest and best wheat producing land in the county. In the centre of the township, for a breadth of several miles, clay or limestone land prevails; a kind of land which has always been considered more valuable than any other in the valley. Much of the northern portion is slate land, which, has, under the improved method of treatment and cultivation, grown into favor amongst the agricultural portion of the people. At the first settlement, the southern section of the township was covered with a dense growth of yellow pine, with an undergrowth of hickory, chestnut and several varieties of oak. The centre was without timber, and was known as "Barrens;" but about 1750 oak, hickory and a few pine bushes began to make their appearance on these barren lands, and at the close of the century they were covered with a thriving growth of valuable timber. Within the past forty years a great portion of the timber in both of these sections has disappeared; much of it having been needlessly destroyed.

The early settlers were generally of Irish nativity, and were Presbyterians. Among them were the McCunes, Sterretts, Sharpes, Fultons, Graceys, Mickeys, Scroggs, Kilgores, Beatties and many others; some of whose descendants are in possession of the homes of their ancestors. Toward the close of the last century, a few German families began to settle in the southern section, within a short distance of the South Mountain. Among these were the Seavers, Thrushes, Frys, Brickers, Bachmans and some others. Even as late as 1830 the people of this nationality, constituted but a small part of the population, but after that date much of the choice land of the section, passed into their possession. This is not the case, to so great an extent in the central and northern portions of the township.

For several years after 1819, what is now known as Jacksonville, contained but six small log houses, five of which stood on the southern side of the Walnut Bottom road, and the other on the northern side, in the vicinity of where Mr. Ernst's store now stands. This was a small log cabin, one story in height, and was occupied by a man named William Bowen. The first on the other side of the road which stood a little east of that of Mr. Bowen, was a similar edifice, which was occupied by a man named James Galbraith, a weaver. The next, a story and a half weatherboarded house, stood about one hundred yards east of the latter, and was then occupied by a Welshman, named David Evans. A widow named Connor occupied a one-story house which stood a few rods east of that of Mr. Evans. Beside this stood a small two-story house which was occupied by a man named John Neal. On the hill, where Mrs. Waddie now lives, was then a two-story log house kept as a tavern by an Irishman named John McCaslin. A short distance east of this tavern there was a one-story log house occupied by two brothers and a sister named Snodgrass; and at a little distance east of this house, on the opposite side of the road, where Mr. Lutshaw's residence now stands, stood a long low two-story weatherboarded log building which had never known the value of paint. This house was known as the "Bull-Ring" tavern, and was kept at that time by Michael Hawk. This and the house occupied by the Snodgrass family, were looked upon as [illegible] the limits of the village.

The land on the north side of the road, in front of the other houses was the property of a man named Peter Fry, and the village was at first called Frystown. By general consent, however, the name of Canada was bestowed upon it, and, it was not called Jacksonville until of years later. The pine forest extended to within a few

DICKINSON.

BY HON. J. M. WEAKLEY.

Dickinson township now includes only that portion of Cumberland county lying between South Middleton township on the east and Penn and Cooke townships on the west. It extends from the boundary of West Pennsborough township, the Harrisburg and Chambersburg turnpike, on the north, to the Adams county line on the south. It is nearly a rectangle in form, and is about twelve miles in length, from north to south, with an average width of about five and one-half miles. It formerly included the townships of Penn and Cooke, and prior to its division was the largest township in the county.

The Cumberland Valley was first divided into the townships of Pennsborough and Hampden; Pennsborough including nearly the whole of the territory now embraced in Cumberland county. The formation of Middleton township divided Pennsborough, and the western division of it became West Pennsborough township. Dickinson was formed from a portion of West Pennsborough, by a decree of the Court of Quarter Sessions of this county, made April 17th, 1785. There is no survey on record of the township as it was then constituted, nor does the decree of the Court, or the petition on which it was made, define its boundaries very accurately. It seems certain, however, that it extended from South Middleton on the east to Newton on the west, and from the "great road leading from Harrisburg to Chambersburg on the north," to Adams county on the south.

The original settlers of this region were mainly Irish. They were farmers, and were, doubtless, attracted to it by the indications of a rich and fertile soil, which must have been abundant even when it was a wilderness. They settled first along the Yellow Breeches creek, and purchased from the proprietaries of the Province, large tracts of land, which they soon cleared and made productive. Many of the descendants of these pioneers still reside in this township, and own the lands on which their ancestors settled. It would add much to the interest of this sketch to give the names of the early settlers, with the traditions of early times, which linger among their descendants, but this is impracticable for want of space, and reliable data. In order, however, that there may be an accessible record of the names of the fathers of this township, the petition for its erection, with the names of the petitioners, as it remains on record in the Court, will be copied. It is as follows:

To the Worshipful Justices of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peaces for the County of Cumberland, April Term, 1785.

The Humble Petition of the Freeholders of West Pennsboro Township Humbly Sheweth:

That said Township is much too Large for officers to perform their Respective duties without uncommon Fatague far above what the officers of our Neighboring Townships do feel—

Therefore we pray your Worships to appoint and confirm a Line to divide said Township & as the Great Road leading from Carlisle to Shippensburg doth appear to be nearly Centerable we pray said Road to be confirmed for a line between the North and South divisions, the Wednesday morning and arrive at Harrisburg every Friday morning.

Fare from Harrisburg to Clark's Ferry, $1.00; Clark's Ferry to Millerstown, $1.00; Millerstown to Lewistown, $2.00; Lewistown to Bellefonte, $2.00, or from Harrisburg to Bellefonte, $6.00.—Advertisement, August, 1820.

Religious.—The following are the religious societies and congregations of Perry county: Presbyterian—Old and New School united—and the Seceder, Lutheran, Reformed Church, Methodist, Evangelical Association, Winebrenner Church, established by Rev. John Winebrenner, of Harrisburg, now called the Church of God, Dunker Society, United Brethren, and a few followers of Andrew J. Smolnicker, who established "Peace Union" on Tuscarora Mountain; also a few Free Lovers.

Sherman's Valley, at an early day, included all of Perry county except Pfoutz's Valley. It received its name from the creek, which was called Sherman's after an Indian trader who was drowned at Gibson's while attempting to cross it with his horse and furs. In this valley, says the author of Watson's Annals, I saw a real "leather stocking" in the person of a Mr. Stewart; twenty-five years ago he had killed as many as sixty deer in one season; he goes out in snow-time in preference, and lays out all night. It was in this valley that I heard of William Penn's iron spur, left on his visit to the Susquehanna, near Columbia, and now in possession of Lewis Pennock, in London Grove, Cheste Smolnikar, who established "Peace Union" on Tuscarora Mountains; also a few New Lights.

Sherman's Valley, at an early day, included all of Perry county except [illegible] Valley. It received its name from the creek, which was called Sherman's after an Indian trader who was drowned at Gibson's while attempting to cross it with his horse and furs. In this valley, says the author of Watson's Annals, I saw a real "leather stocking" in the person of a Mr. Stewart. Twenty-five years ago he had killed as many as sixty deer in one season; he goes out in snow-time in preference, and lays out all night. It was in this valley that I heard of William Penn's iron spur, left on his visit to the Susquehanna, near Columbia, and now in possession of Lewis Peacock, in London Grove, Chester county. Many aged persons, still alive in Carlisle, remember very well when all the carriage of goods and stores westward from Carlisle was done wholly on pack-horses, coming and going in whole companies; only as late as twelve years ago there were not more than three wagons in all Sherman's Valley—all the hauling was done on sleds, in summer as well as winter. A Mrs. Murphy, who died in that valley in 1830, aged nearly one hundred years—having lived a long life there among the Indians—remembered seeing the first wagon arrive at Carlisle, and the indignation it excited among the packers, as likely to ruin their trade! Even the widening of the roads, when first ordered, offended them! The pack-horses used to carry bars of iron on their back, crooked over and around their bodies; barrels were hung on them, one on each side. She remembered that the first Indian track (or path) to go westward, was to cross at Simpson's, four miles below John Harris'; then across Conodoguinet, at Middlesex; thence up the mountain across Crogan's Gap (now Sterret's); thence down the mountain and across Sherman's creek at Gibson's; then by Dick's Gap (the gap between Dick's and Quaker hills, through which the Landisburg road passes); then through Sherman's Valley by Concord to the Burnt Cabins; then to the waters of the Alleghany and down the river.

Shumaker, J. H., Ph. D., was born near Sandy Hill, Madison township. He received his preparatory education at Academia Academy, Juniata Co., Pa., of which he was the efficient principal after he county. A little further discussion of the below court record of 1835 Fred Shatto sent out and how to disentagle these people, get them straightened out so they are reconciled with the records:

First: A secondary source, the family lineage reported in "Foulke, Lupfer and Allied Families" by Cassandra Shatto Denison has Joseph Shatto as follows. The question becomes, was his first wife Barbara Shatto, d/o Anthony Shatto & Susannah Shade?

"Joseph B. 1772, d. 5-31-1841 Name of 1st wife unknown.
Ch.
1. Benjamin b. 11-5-1802.
2. Joseph b. 1-18-1805, d. 3-23-1814.
3. Solomon b 4-22-1809.

2nd m. Mary Walker
Ch.
4. Polly or Molly b. 8-20-1812
5. Joseph b. 4-20-1816, d. 2-10-1869, m. 9-7-1837 Arcliemena Bacon

3rd m. Mary Walker dau. of Mary Walker by a previous marriage.
6. Sarah b. 11-30-1819
7. Simon b. 4-5-1822
8. Betsy b. 10-19-1824, d. 1860
9. David b. 9-2-1826
10. Belinda b. 10-28-1828
11. Emily b. 11-27-1830
12. Frederick b. 5-6-1833
13. Franklin b. 3-18-1835
14. Ralph b. 4-20-1838
15. Charles b. 11-28-1839"

Second: A primary source: The Cumberland Co Orphans' Court document of 8 Feb 1820 which is a petition of Christian Shade and Sarah, daughter of Anthony, says the following about Barbara Shatto, daughter of Anthony Shatto, dec'd.

"Barbara intermarried with Benjamin Shatto which said Barbara is since dead leaving her Husband Benjamin Shatto & Issue three children to wit Joseph, Benjamin & Soloman who are minors & have John Ewalt appointed their guardian. .."

Here Barbara is dead and she was married to a Benjamin Shatto, not a Joseph Shatto .... but there is a son named Joseph Shatto.
Also, all three sons are minors. These are the same names that Cassandra Shatto Denison has in her lineage as the children of Joseph Shatto and first wife Unknown - which led me to assume that Joseph Shatto's first wife was Barbara, d/o of Anthony. However Mrs. Denison says that son Joseph died in 1814 and if these three children of Denison's lineage and the court document are the same, then why would Joseph appear in the 1820 document when he is dead?

This same document also says "Eve intermarried with Benjamin Shatto" with no mention of Eve's demise. Would this be the same Benjamin Shatto who married Eve's sister Barbara??? I.e., Benjamin Shatto remarried to his sister-in-law Eve??

Third, The Gems from the Court of Common Pleas (Civil) of 1835, below, sent out by Fred states:

" Joseph SHATTO & wife Barbara in her right" as an heir of Anthony, which makes daughter Barbara quite alive and kicking in 1835 and the wife of a Joseph Shatto!!

Fourth: On Worldconnect, there is a posting by Sue Daisher that has Catherine Shatto, d/o of Johann Anthony Shatto & Barbara Keller, as marrying a Samuel Siders. This is essentially the same name, Samuel Ziders, that appears in the 1835 Court of Common Pleas document!!

Fifth: Went back and found another discrepancy:

The 1820 document says that daughter Elizabeth intermarried with John Haller. The 1835 document has daughter Elizabeth married to George Hollar

Now, does anyone have any documentation to sort out and reconcile all this?? Are we dealing with two or possibly three different Joseph Shattos and two different Barbara Shattos??

Cheers, Barry

Also, according to this source, children by the second wife were born starting 1812????? And there are a whole raft of them - 10 between 1812 and 1835, with two born after that. What gives here?? During her visit to Pa. last week Theresa Berg noted (based on an Atlas) that a William Shatto was living in Carroll Twp during the 1860's and wondered if this could be Barry Michie's ancestor. Well, I visited the Perry Historians today and tried, unsuccessfully, to figure out Anthony Shatto and all of the inter-marriages. I did however determine that this William Shatto is the son of David Shatto and not Barry's ancestor. Here is what I know about them. Some of the information is based on Family Group Records retrieved from the LDS site.

Fred:

Thanks for pointing this out. The best I can say is not to believe everything you find on Ancestory.com. I just went on and things are terribly confused when you look at the various postings.

There are, as far as I know, only two Anthony Shattos in this issue. One is the father, Johann or John Anthony Chateau/Shatto (1753-1816), son of Jean Nicholas Chatea, Sr.. John Anthony Chateau was married twice: 1) Susannah Shade (1739!!-??) and 2) Barbara Keller (1753-1833). Son Anthony was the son of the second wife, Barbara Keller. The records (including your gem below) support that he was the father of Anthony Shatto (c. 1801/06 - ??) and only name one Anthony as a son. Other than those things on Ancestory.com, I have never heard of a second son also named Anthony of Johann Anthony Chateau/Shatto and Barbara Keller.

Furthermore, some of the marriages posted on Worldconnect are highly unlikely if not impossible - note they do not have dates for the spouses. For example Anthony, b. 1801 marrying Susannah Shade is unlikely as the date of birth I have for her is 1739 and in Germany (not supported by documentation, however). Also, the obit of Michael Shatto (1829-1910) you sent out just recently names his father as Anthony and his mother as "Poly (Smith)", i.e. Mary Smith. Also, an Orphans Court document of 1779 concerning the children of Johann George Shade mentions that his daughter, Susannah is "now the wife of Anthony Shatto of Shearman's Valley" (see below). And a land sale of 1804 names Athony Shatto's wife as Barbara. These can only by John Anthony Chateau, Sr. - wife 1, Susannah Shade; wife 2 Barbara Keller.

This family is fairly well documented but there are things that need to be documented:
- I only have peoples' say-so that wife two is Barbara Keller
- Who are Barbara Keller's parents .... possibly Anthony "Anton" Keller and Anna Barbara Chateau, probably sister of Jean Nicholas Chateau, Sr.??
- When did Susannah Shade Shatto die and when did Anthony remarry to Barbara??
- And how to definitively apportion the children between the two wives.

Here are some documents for consideration. Enjoy. It's a tangled web of multiple cousin marriages.

Cheers, Barry

Notice that the widow is named as Barbara.

The following two documents (#2 & #3) name Susannah Shade as his wife as of 1779. The other, a sale of land to his father Nicholas, names his wife as "Barbara" in 1804, viz:

2. York County, PA Orphans Court Docket D Feb 23 1779

"This petition of John Shade, second son of George Shade, late of Warrington Township. cordswainer deceased. was read to the Court setting forth, That the petitioner's father, near four years ago died intestate; left Elizabeth his widow and lawful issue to survive him, namely Katrina, now the wife of Frederick Flick of Antrim Township in Cumberland County, Susanna, now the wife of Anthony Shatto of Shearman's Valley in the county of Cumberland, George his eldest son, John the petitioner, Mary, now the wife of John Shatto of Shearman's Valley aforesaid, and David. That he left a small improvement adjoining John Mechlin, Joseph Taylor, Andreas Roos, Joseph Bens, and Frederick Roos. Containing about one hundred acres, be the same more or less.
That the petitioner therefore humbly requests the court toward an inquest to divide the land aforesaid amongst the Widow and children of the intestate if the same will admit of fair division without prejudice to and _____? the whole, and if the same will not admit of such division then and in that case to value the whole undivided. Whereupon his confidence by the court and ordered that an inquest be held thereon by the Sheriff agreeable to the prayer of the said petition and that return thereof be made on the 23 day of March next."

06. JOHN SMEE - 1900

It was with sincere sorrow that the many friends of John Smee learned of his death, which occurred on the 6th inst, at his home in Carroll twonship near Shermansdale. His death was the result of a stroke of paralysis. John Smee was born in this county, March 4, 1835, and was a son of John and Elizabeth (Souder) Smee. He attended the common schools and learned the carpentering trade with Jacob Smee, and afterwards became his partner. On August 17, 1863, Mr. Smee enlisted as a soldier, and was assigned to company B, 149th Penna. Volunteers. He served until the close of the war and was discharged at Alexandria, Va., June 24 1865. While in the service Mr. Smee took part in ten battles. He was with General Grant's army in the thirty days' campaign from the Wilderness to Cold Harbor. In the first battle of the Wilderness he was struck by a bullet, and in the engagment at Laurel Hill he was wounded by a shell. He was in the terrific fights at Spottsylvania, North Anna River, Cold H! arbor, Weldon Railroad, Hatcher's Run, Bellfield and in front of Petersburg. After the close of the war Mr. Smee returned home and worked at his trade until a few years ago, when he engaged in farming. In political faith Mr. Smee was an ardent Democrat and took an active interest in his party's cause. He was a member of John Jones Post. No. 448, G. A. R., of this place. Mr Smee was married January 2, 1862 to Elizabeth, daughter of Jacob and Mary Shatto. Their children are: Jacob W., John W., and George M. By the death of Mr. Smee the county loses one of its best and most useful citizens. He was a man of strict integrity, a brave soldier, a loyal friend, and a kind husband and father. His loss is keenly felt, not only in his own community but wherever he was known. (1900, unknown newspaper)

07. GRANT S. SHATTO - 1989

Grant S. Shatto, 67, of Shermans Dale RD 2, died Tuesday, Nov 7, at home. BOLAND SHOULD BE POLAND)

08. JOHN WESLEY SHATTO

John Wesley Shatto, a descendent of one of the oldest families in this section, died of a heart attack on Wednesday evening at his home which was with his sister, Mrs. J C. Saucerman West Walnut street. The heart attack was superinduced by a gas condition of the bowels and he had been only slightly ill since Tuesday morning. He was born in Howe township, a son of Solomon and Catharine (Free) Shatto and was aged 79 years, 5 months and 20 days. His vocation was telegraphy and as a young man he worked at various stations of the Middle division. For many years he was a train dispatcher for the Erie railroad with headquarters at Erie. Ill health caused him to retire from this work for a time, following which he had charge of the Harrisburg office of the Tuscarora Oil Company. About four years ago he retired and came here to make his home with his sister, Mrs. Saucerman. There are also surviving a sister and two brothers, who are Mary, Mrs. Fred Roller, Camp Hill; E. Brandt Shatto!
Summerville N. J., and Solomon Shatto, a retired P. R. R. train dispatcher, living at Altoona. Services were Saturday afternoon at the Saucerman home. Rev. M. O. H. Kerscher, officiating, followed by interment in Newport Cemetery. The pallbearers were H. W. Saucerman J. K. Saucerman, H. G. Kell, O. S. Miller. H. R. Kell, this place and Ross Shatto, Camp Hill. Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were from Altoona, Harrisburg, Camp Hill, Penbrook, New Buffalo, Philadelphia and Carlisle. (no date and unknown newspaper)

Carolyn:

I have the same names you have as children of John Shatto and Margaret Leonard, but have a total of 9. Mine have been pieced together from various postings and other things. I had ten on the basis of one of your earlier postings - had included Adam on the strength of your posting citing Lurah Putt DeVoe Phillips, but you mention now that she had crossed him off with the notation he was the brother of John (and I have an Adam as his brother).

It would be helpful if you could explain a little bit about your Aunt Lurah, how she fits into the Shatto scheme of things, when she was putting things together, and how close she was to this family, i.e. were the people known to her, Bible records, etc. It appears that these seven you have are at the common core of the various sources. Also, what other documentation do you have for this family?

I believe on the strength of the obituaries we can definitely indentify the following:

Henry J - mentioned as a son, H.J. Shatto of Mentone
Harriet - mentioned as Mrs. Geo. Baxter of Plymouth
Lavina - mentioned as Mrs. John Cole

On the basis of the 1860 census for Fairfield Township, Dekalb Co IN, (No Shattos in that township in 1850) we can positively identify:

John - aged 19
Lavina - aged 16
Benton - aged 10

A Rachel Shatto appears in the 1850 Ohio, Mahoning Co, Smith Twp. Census (image 15 on the Ancestory.com page). All the ages fit for all three of the people to identify her, Henry J and Lucinda Wood. She is in Household 105 with:
Henry J. Shatto 22 M Laborer Ohio
Lucinda 18 F Ohio
Rachel 15 F Ohio
[no others in the household]

This makes a total of 6 in the records: Henry J, Harriet, John, Rachel, Lavina, & Isaiah Benton. We may be able to identify others by the 1850 census records. Does anyone know where John and Margaret Shatto were living in 1850? They are not in the 1850 Fairfield Twp. Dekalb Co census.

Your Aunt Lurah mentions these 6 and one more (leaving out Adam): Loretta.

This brings the total to 6 definite and 1 more most probable on the additional strength your Aunt Lurah's records.

I have a lot of conflicting information on who the other children may be - no definite documentation:

I. Forrest Shade posted the following 9 children to list earlier this month - with the additional names of Ann and Sarah Emmeline.

1. Henry J Shatto b: 1827 d: 1915

....      +Lucinda Wood   b: 1832     d: 1869
        *2nd Wife of Henry J Shatto:
....      +Eunice Sheldon b: 1831
 2.   Ann Shatto  b: 1830  (no spouse listed)
 3.   Loretta Shatto  b: 1833
 4.   Rachel Samantha Shatto  b: 1834     d: 1912
....      +David A McBride    b: July 24, 1832 in Portage Co., OH     d: 1863
        *2nd Husband of Rachel Samantha Shatto:
....      +Frederick Harmes    b: 1821     d: 1886
 5.   Sarah Emmeline Shatto   b: 1836     (no spouse listed)
 6.   Harriet Shatto  b: 1838
 7.   John L Shatto   b: 1840     d: 1861
 8.   Lavina Shatto   b: 1842
 9.   Isaiah Benton Shatto    b: 1849
```

II. I have the above same seven names (before Forrest's in "I") with the addition of Sarah Emmeline and Leighton Harvey:

Henry J. Shatto b. 23 jun 1827, m. (1) Lucinda Wood (2) Eunice Sheldon
Leighton Harvey Shatto b. 1828, m. (1) Juliet Hamlin (2) Emily Elizabeth Noonen
Loretta Shatto, b. 1833
Rachael Samantha Shatto, b. 10 Aug 1834, m. (1) David A. McBride (2) Frederick Harmes
Sarah Emmeline Shatto, b. 12 Sept 1837, m. Jacob Boyer (or Byers??)
Harriet Shatto, b. 1838, m. George W. Baxter
John L Shatto, b. 1841 (died 1861 as war casualty)
Lavina Shatto, b. 1 Jan 1844, m. John W. Cole
Isaiah Benton Shatto, b. c. 1850, m. Sybilla Crise

I have no Ann - and no obvious suspects hanging separately in my data base.

A. Sarah Emmeline is in my list on the strength of the following

a. Author: David Lawrence Date: 8 Mar 2001 12:00 PM GMT
Surnames: Shatto, Boyer
Classification: Query
In Reply to: Boyer-Shatto Family by: Gene Watson

Emeline Shatto and Jacob Boyer married in DeKalb county, Indiana, in 1857. They had two children in Marshall county, Emanuel Dayton and Mary Alice. After Emeline's death, Jacob remarried and had four more children. Four of the six children died of scarlet fever in the 1860s. E.D. Boyer was my great grandfather. Emeline was daughter of John Shatto and Margaret Leonard. Jacob Boyer was son of John Boyer and Mary Thomas.

Since a number of people are trying to help with the ancestry of Leighton Harvey Shatto, I thought it mighjt be helpful to put out addtional information that might help or add to the puzzle.

Leighton Harvey Shatto, b. 1828 in Ohio, I believe, Trumbull County. Leighton was a lawyer. In 1856 he was elected tax assessor for Tippecanpe Township in Marshall County, IN. He marreid his fist wife Juliet Hamlin Dec 23, 1849 in Stark County, Ohio. His child Wilbur was born 1855 in Greesnburg Indiana. Juliet died Mar 22 1849 in Marshall County, IN. Leighton is found in the 1860 Marshall County census living with a family named Coons.

In the 1860 census for Koscuisko County, IN, Leighton's son Wilbur is living with Henry J. Shatto and his wife Lucinda.

Wilbur is not with Henry and Lucinda in 1870.

It is logical that Henry may be Leightons' brother.

He married Emily Elizabeth Noonen 29 June 1861 Marshall County, IN. They have two children, Alma, and Carrie.

I have not been able to located him in the 1870 census, (I have checked everywhere)

Where was Leighton and his son Wilbur in 1870?

I found him and Emily and daughters in the 1880 census in the town of Knox, Starke County IN.
Leighton is listed in this census as Harvey L. Shatto.

Wilbur is not with him in the 1880 census.

A history of Starke County, IN, published in 1915, says. L. Harvey Shatto was a lawyer and an editor 1876 to 1882. Does that mean he died in 1882 or moved?

His widows' obit says he died in 1884.

Starke County cannot find a death record. None of the cemery indexes in Starke County show Leighton.

I have record of probate from Starke County appointing his widow as executor, would you believe there is no date on the record of probate.

I appreciate all the time and effort folks are putting in tryng to help me. I will pass your kindness on.

G. W.

Fred:

Again, thanks! These are gems and mines of information. These things generate more insights - and questions - than a lot of other things we run across - particularly as they are contemporary accounts and can be considered quasi-primary sources. Newspapers don't always get things right, as we all know from personal experience.

Here are some questions I have by number of posting:

01. SUSAN DRAWBAUGH SHATTO (PERRY COUNTY TIMES 7-5-1917)

Susan Drawbaugh was the second wife of Isaac Shatto - the first was Ellenora Amanda Beacher. I have two children for this first marriage:
Benjamin Franklin Shatto, m. Ida Velor Still
Mary Elizabeth Shatto, m. David S. Henamman

I have no children for Isaac's marriage with Susan. As this was a second marriage for Isaac, it may have been a second marriage for Susan as well. They married at relatively late age for both of them, in 1884 - he born in 1845 and she in 1847.

This Mrs. Elizabeth Shumberger of the obit is not identified as any specific relation.

Question: Might the Mrs. Elizabeth Shumberger of the obit be Mary Elizabeth Shatto, her step-daughter who may have married for a second time to a Shumberger? Or might she be her own daughter?? Or might this be another relative?? Does anyone know?

Also, where is Pine Hill located? I went on the Rootsweb town/city - county search engine and came up with 3 counties for Pine Hill PA: Somerset, Armstrong & Schuylkill.

Nice to have her sisters names.

02. SOLOMAN SHATTO - LAND AUCTION

The only suspect I have for him is Solomon Shatto, s/o John Anthony Chateau/Shatto & Susannah Shade. I have unsubstantiated info that Solomon died 18 Aug 1862 in Howe Township, Perry County. This land sale could be part of the settling of the estate.

The names of the landowners adjoining this property are interesting - possibly as leads for connections to Shattos:

Jacob Frank I have a Jacob Frank in my database, s/o Philip Frank and Mary Sophia Glace. Last June Fred posted Mary Sophia Glace Frank's 1897 obituary because one of the Frank daughters, a Mary (and sister of a Jacob Frank) was listed as Mrs. Mary Shatto of Michigan. I have yet to identify which Shatto this Mary Frank married.

John Hopple: Mary "Polly" Shatto, d/o Jean Nicholas Chateau, Jr. & Elizabeth DeFulton, married an Andrew Hopple c. 1792

Jesse Oren: This is probably a stretch but the Solomon Shatto d. 1862 of Howe Twnship, had a daughter, Elizabeth who married a John Orner as her second husband.

03. MRS. HETTIE SHATTO (DEMOCRATE 11/6/1872)

I had posted this one previously but didn't have the newspaper name or date of publication. Is the name of the paper "Democrate" or did you add an "e" to the end? Also, does anyone know where this newspaper was published?? The obit says her death was "in this borough". I also assume this Hettie was Eve Hester Croyle.

04. MRS. REBECCA GELBAUGH (1921)

I assume she is Rebecca Shatto (b. 1865), d/o of William C. Shatto & Elizabeth Leight. William C. Shatto (b. 24 Nov 1833 - d. 18 Sep 1913) was the son of John Shatto & Sarah Shade. William C. and Elizabeth Shatto are buried in the Union Cemetery, Duncannon, Perry Co., where Mrs. Rebecca Shatto Gelbaugh was buried according to this obit.

None of my other Rebecca Shattos have a William as a father, or were born before 1921, or died after 1921. Prior to this obit, I only have a Rebecca, d/o of William C. Shatto and Elizabeth Leight.

Does this relationship hold up???

05. LILLIAN B. LIDDICK (NEWS-SUN 2-14-1996)

Good find! Adds new information to a known family and descendents. Lillian, d/o Amos Shatto & Minnie Crozier; Amos s/o Jacob Shatto & Mary M. Smith; Jacob s/o Benjamin Shatto & Eva MariaShatto; Benjamin s/o Jean Nicholas Chateau/Shatto Jr. & Elizabeth DeFulton; Eva Maria d/o John Anthony Chateau/Shatto & Barbara Keller

Fred, hope you have more!!!! Keep 'em coming!!!!

Best regards, Barry

Cousins, Barry, Craig and all,

I guess that some of you have seen the Supposition from Erold C. Wiscombe of Salt Lake City, UT on the Schateau / Schatto families in Lettweiler, Pfalz, Germany. Erold was descendant from Anna Barbara Schatto, and Anthony Keller. Anna Barbara Schatto, and Anthony Keller were married in Meisenheim 12 Dec 1730. A probable sister, Maria Elizabeth married to Johann Adam Maurer in Oldernheim 8 July 1730.

Meisenheim is just east of the lovely area of Idar-Oberstein. I think that this is still north of the Saar area. I have never found anyone that has had any luck researching the Avigon / Champaign area of France. There were some Nobel families of Schateaus their in the 11 or 12 Century. I hope that you have lots of luck. It would be great to have some one find something in that area.

If you find something that would be great to collect with all of our other genealogy papers, I would no doubt love to have copies, and would reimburse you for the Copies and postage.

Dear All:

Sorry if part of this went out earlier. I was trying to postpone the message to eat dinner. Here is it completed. In addition to the surnames covered below there are a bunch of Lupfers, Bernheisels, Howes, Boyds, Foulkes, Gardners, Shoups and Wises, all families that have intermarried with Shattos at one time or another.

Enjoy, Barry

Here are some excerpts from a history book on Perry County that contain references to various Shattos, Shades and others related to the Shattos. The book is: Hain, H.H., "History of Perry County, Pennsylvania" (Harrisburg, Pa.: Hain-Moore Company, Publishers), 1922, 1088 pps. [reprint Salem, WV: Don Mills, Inc, no date].

from Chapter XV Old Landmarks, Mills and Industries

[p. 247] "On a map published in 1791, when the first governor, Thomas Mifflin, was in office, no less than 10 gristmills are located by name, and there are a number merely marked "mill". A the mouth of the Cocolamus Creek, in Greenwood Township, was SHADE'S mill, now the J. Keely Everhart mill."

[p. 274] "Perry Furnace. Perry furnace was located on a tract of land warranted by ANTHONY SHATTO, which later came into the possession of William Power. In 1837 Jacob Loy, John Everhart, and John Kough, trading under the name of of Loy, Everhart & Company, purchased several hundred acres of land and erected Perry furnace, where they began the manufacture of hollowware and tenplate stoves."

pps. 453-4: from Chapter XXVI The County's Public Officials

"County Treasurers. Showing date of election. ....

1871 ISAAC N. SHATTO"

pps. 530-31: from Capter XXX Yhe County's Early Years -- A Comparison

"The County in the Mexican War.

...... "The President called upon the governor of Pennsylvania for six regiments of volunteers "to be held in readiness to serve for twelve months unless sooner discharged." Within thirty days enough men for nine regiments had volunteered." .....

"Perry County furnished a lieutenant, Michael Steever, and sixty-six privates, which were mainly recruited from the Landisburg Guards and the Bloomfield Light Infantry, Perry County's two crack militia companies of that day. They participated in the Battles of Beuna Vista [sic], Vera Cruz, Cerro Gordo, Contreras, Cherubusco, Molino Del Rey, and Chapultepec. Their districts are not given. The roster:

SHATTO, ISAAC H." [I speculate that this should really by SHATTO, ISAAC N.]

pps. 556-578: from Chapter XXXI Perry County in the Sectional War

[p. 556] "The List of Soldiers From Perry County

It is impossible to give a complete list of the Perry County soldiers during the Sectional War, as many went to Camp Curtin at Harrisburg, to enlist and did not give their residence, and consequently were credited to Dauphin County. Others enlisted in regiments from other counties, and as the government did not keep a record of their residences in the official rosters, it is impossible at this late date to make a correct list without spending years at work, and even then its correctness would be doubtful. The lists printed in the following pages are drawn from various volumes, regimental records and other publications, being corrected where they were known to be wrong. While they are almost all from Perry County, there will be found some from other counties, which belonged to Perry County companies. They follow:"

[p. 557-8] "Three Years Service - Thirty-Sixth Regiment, Company B. (Seventh Reserve)" ....

"The Thirty-Sixth Regiment of the Union Army included Company B of Perry Countians, as well as a considerable number in Companies A and H. The regiments was organized in the early summer of '61, under command of Colonel Elisha B. Harvey, of Wilkes-Barre. It was mustered at Camp Wayne, near West Chester. The state uniformed and equipped it. Compayny B was mustered in on May 4th. It was assigned to duty in the Second Brigade, commanded by General Meade. This company, as a part of the Seventh Reserve Regiment, participated in a skirmish at Great Falls on the Potomac, and in the engagements at Gaines Mill, Charles City Crosstain, Antietam, Fredricksburg, and the Wilderness. In the latter engagement, April 5, 1864, part of the regiment (272 officers and men) were taken prisoners and not released till the close of the war. David,

You did not say, but hopefully you will Join our Shatto mail list. There is no cost. Below is a copy of the response that I have received from the list. This is only speculation on Barry's part. Barry is fairly new at Genealogy, but he has lots of Shatto information because his mother worked on the Shatto's for many years and he has access to her files. I would not be surprised if Barry Michie doesn't connect to the same branch as you. I will have to take some time to work on that.

A JEDCOM file is a file that let you work between different genealogy programs without retyping in all of the data. Do you have a Genealoty Program, and if so which one?

Attachments cannot be sent through the list, but short JEDCOM files in text format cam be sent.

Per Clara Milligan of Laclede, MO Catherine b. 21 Dec 1856, and married George Grim in Sullivan 18 Dec 1853, is the daughter of Daniel Shatto and Catherine Stitle(??spelling). Daniel substituted for Adam Shatto in the War of 1812. While to date we have not proven it, we believe that Adam was probably a brother of Daniel, and both sons of John Shatto and Mary Shade.

The family of John Shatto and Mary Shade is speculated to be:

Adam Shatto, the first to go to Ohio probably to homestead land.
Daniel Shatto, Served in the War of 1812 for Adam above.
John Shatto, Stay in PA maybe in the parents old home.
Henry Shatto,
Nicholas Shatto,
Jacob Shatto,
Elizabeth Shatto,
Ephraim Shatto, helped support John and Mary Shatto until they died in Trumbull Co., OH. When Ephraim Shatto died one of his under age sons was assigned a gardian that was ?? Jacob Flick, a likely descendant of Mary Shade's sister. The Flicks were also in Trumbull Co., OH, as was one of the other Shatto lines.

Sorry, but I am haveing problems with extracting from my Shatto Database file, but one of these days I hope to be able to work it out.

Dear David:

Welcome to the discussion group. There are a number of Catherine Shattos but you will need some help form the others as for most all I have is parentage and dates. Whether or not they were born in Ohio is a problem for me.

1. There is a Catherine E. Shatto (1833- ??) d/o Abraham Shatto & Elizabeth Shearer. This I got from Theresa Berg who got it, maybe, from Donald Derr.

2. Also, Ephraim Shatto (who spelled it Shadow) moved from PA to Ohio. But not Catherine listed. Does anyone have more children than the following, and is the marriage date correct??

Ephraim Shadow s/o David Shatto & Julia Ann Gardner
b. 1822 Perry Co., PA
m. 31 Aug 1847 (???) Crawford Co. Ohio to Amy Brown
children:
Amanda M. b. 1844
William A. b. 1848
David N. b. 1850

3. The same above David Shatto had a daughter Catherine but she was born & died in Perry Co. PA.

4. Catharine Shatto (no dates) d/o Jacob Shatto (1813-1891) & Mary M. Smith

These are the possibilities. Someone else jump in and help out.

Regards, Barry Michie

Hi Chris,
I am sure you will receive lots of replys to your message and I want to thank you for adding another point of possibility with the Shatto surname. We (the list) have done lots of work and have met many wonderful cousins. I personally have been interested in the origin of our name the most. From what I know so far is that Jan Nichol Chateau was born in Charleville, Champaign, France about 1715. This region is up near the Belgin border. He is believed to have been a Huguenot and came to Pennsylvania in 1739 on Ye Loyal Judith. Now somewhere along the way, may have been his father Nicol Chateau lived in Lettweiler, Pfalz Germany. This may have been to escape religious persecution. Anyway I have been trying for several years to figure out the origin of the name. Chateau usually is connected to another name because it means land ower so if there is a royal line (and it is mentioned is some documents) then they would have been Chateau de ????. I am facinated my the possibilities and maybe we can work on this. One of the list members has traveled to France, but haven't heard how he found things. By the way, my uncle, Donald Derr is the list owner and will no doubt be in touch with you. Don't know if any of this helps, but hope so. Hope to hear from you soon. Leann in Nebraska

The name Chatto is rooted deep within English royalty with Chatto members being in line for the current throne. Somewhere and someplace the name was modified.. I hope someone will be of help to me.*

Perry County has and had many Shattos. Duncannon, New Bloomfield, & Shermansdale are the places to check. Also contact the Perry Historians, go to the Society Museum/House and check their records.

Check the Bretheran Churches for baptisms, memberships, and marriages.

Brett:

We had an enquiry to this list some time ago from someone trying to find a long lost friend in Germany by the name of Schatto. You might try looking for this in the Shatto archives of this mailing list.

You may also be interested in knowing that Schatto was an alternate spelling used for the surname of our common ancestor as found in the passenger list for the Loyal Judith that arrived in Philadelphia Sep. 3, 1737, with a boatload of "Palatinates". This is how his name appears on the 3 lists for those passengers.

A. Passenger List   Jan Nicholas Chateau
B. Declaration of Fidelity
    (signature)   Johann Nicklaus Schatto
C. Oath of Allegiance
    (signature)   Johann Nicklaus Schatto

He is believed to be from a French Hugenot family that were refugees to Germany during the Religious Wars. He obviously was German enculturated; eg. his estate lists "Bible and other German books".

He may be from a family from Lettweiler, Pfalz, with a father by the same name and sisters and brother-in-laws that also show up in Pennsylvania about the same time and are sponsors of each other's childrens' baptisms.

So ... perhaps this relates to your ancestory, but doesn't help much for finding immediate relatives.

Happy hunting, Barry Michie / Manhattan, Kansas USA

At one time being belated in returning home at night, darkness overtook her on her way, and as there was no path except that made by the blazed trees, she soon became confused and after wandering about for some time gave herself up as lost and sat down to wait for - she knew not what. The wild beasts came close about her but did not molest her; a storm came up and drenched her garments, and at last morning dawned and revealed the fact tha she was quite a distance from home. The effect of the nervous shock and the exposure to storm and cold was too much for her naturally delicate frame; she never rallied from it an died not many years later at the age of sixty-three.

Shatto cousins,

If you were making your first trip to Pennsylvania, where exactly would you visit to get a feeling for where the Shatto's lived?

We know that Jean Nicholas Chateau was assessed for taxes in Dover Twp., Warrington Twp., and Monaghan Twp., but do we know exactly where his property was located in these townships? I have a map with current boundaries of these townships, so it gives me a rough idea where they were located. Also, I have that Jean Nicholas died in Dover. Do we believe that to be Dover Twp., or the town of Dover?

Some of his children were born in Lancaster Co., PA and baptized in Germantown. Where is Germantown? I do not see it on the map.

Has anyone been to the Mt. Zion Lutheran Cemetery in Blain, Perry Co. where Jacob Shatto, son of John Nicholas was supposedly buried? Does anyone have any other cemeteries in PA where Shattos are buried? I do know of the one in Little Buffalo State Park where Julianna Gardner Shatto Troup is buried.

Any suggestions would be appreciated. Please respond before 5/25.

Thanks.
Theresa Berg

The six-inch blade of the knife entered the boy's face just below the right eye and touched the brain. He was taken to Borgess hospital and was attended by Dr. I. W. Brown. He died about 20 minutes after he was admitted to the hospital.
FELL ONLY TWO STEPS
Amos Laverne had been whittling on a stick in the Hughey home and a sister, Wanda, 12, took the stick away from her brother, for fear he would cut himself. Before she could take the knife the boy had started down the stairs to a lower apartment, where his mother was visiting.
Detectives Ray Cleveland and Loyal Aldrich, who with Dr. Horace R. Cobb, county coroner, investigated the death, stated the boy fell only two steps from the bottom.
PICKED UP UNCONSCIOUS
Harry White, a resident in the apartment building, heard the fall and rushed to the stairway. He carried Amos Laverne to the apartment of his parents and there the mother and father extricated the knife, The boy was unconscious.
The Hughey's had company at the time of the accident. Their guests were Austin Barrett and Berger Heath.
Amos Laverne is survived by the parents, a sister, Wanda, 12, and a brother, James, 17. Laverne (Berne) Hughey, the father, is a former baseball pitcher, and was one of the best known pitchers in the old Southern Michigan league, when Charles Wagner managed the Kalamazoo club.

Hi Carolyn, the attached is all I have on the family as I am doing the Hughey family.
I recognize the name because the children reported their mother's name as Shadow and I always have to remind the Hughey cousins that the spelling is Shatto. I have seen a picture of Anna and she was a very pretty girl. Her granddaughter had a large print picture of her.

Carolyn, I have copies of the "Cemeteries of Steuben Co." and there are about 6 Shattos listed in them. If you do not have access to the books I would be glad to copy them for you.

I hope this helps you some.

Regarding the messages from Scott Ditmer and Peggy Price, I would like to add the following.
Both had heard from someone that Eva Maria Chateau's maiden name was Molitor. The only mention of Molitor that I have is the following received from Donald Derr, owner of this list, in May, 1977, citing from Stapleton's "Memorial to the Hugenots of Penna."

"The baptismal records of Father Schneider, of the Catholic Congregation at Goshoppen, states: A. Barbara Chateau and Catharine, of Nicholas (calvinist) and M. Eva Chateau (R.C.), baptized Aug. 7th, 1744 in John Molitor's home near Germantown. Sponsors were A. Barbara Friedrick and Catharina Riffel."

Does anyone know anything about this John Molitor - where he came from and who his children might be??

Regards, Barry Michie

Scott:

I am a Shatto descendent, from Jean Nicholas Chateau who immigrated with a boat load of Palatines on the "Loyal Judith" in Sept. 1739 to Philadelphia. He died in Dover Township, York Co, PA, aft. 1797. My grandmother was a Shatto, born in Linn, KS, and died in San Francisco, CA. I'm from California and have a lot of Shatto cousins in the Sebastopol area - also distant cousins I have discovered in Oregon and Washington.

Most if not all Shattos in the US descend Jean Nicholas Chateau - the name changed to Shatto and other variations in later generations. I have a lot of information on his descendents and info on him. Also, if you have not done so already, join the Rootsweb Shatto mailing list by sending a message to <SHATTO-L-request@rootsweb.com>. You can post any enquiry you wish and will receive all messages posted to that list. There are many on the list who live in PA.

How do you fit into the Shatto lineages??

Regards, Barry Michie - Manhattan, KS

My Shatto is Leighton Harvey Shatto, also known as Harvey L. Shatto, b.1828 Trumbull County, Ohio. He married Juliet Hamlin 1849, had a son Wilbur born 1855. Juliet died 1860 Marshall County, IN. Wilbur was sentto live with Henry J...he can be found livng with Henry in the 1860 census. Fromthat I suspected Leighton and Henry were brothers, making John & Margaret in my line..theproblme is I haven't really been able to prove there are brothers. Leighton married a second time to a Emily Elizabeth Noonen, their daughter Alma Shatto married James William Adair and they became my great grandparents. I found Leighton living in Starke County in 1880 as lawyer and editor. He died sometime in the 1880s Ifound his record of probate with no date on it. I donot know where he is buried.This is the short version, I have beensearching for Leightons parents since I started this addictive hobby in 1980.

Description:

This database is a compilation of burial records from a variety of sources and cemeteries. These records provide information on the burials of U.S. veterans and their dependents who were buried in the various Veterans Affairs (VA) National Cemeteries, state veterans cemeteries, or other military cemeteries. Because the information regarding the burials is compiled from multiple sources, the amount of information provided for each burial will vary. Some of the information you may find in this database includes: name of deceased, birth date, death date, interment date, burial location/site, cemetery name, cemetery address, relationship to veteran, veteran service dates, military rank, and military branch.

JOHN MACFEELY RHEY—John Macfeely Rhey is the oldest living member of the Cumberland County bar. He is descended from families which early settled in this section of the State and has practiced at Carlisle for nearly half a century.

Mr. Rhey was born at Ebensburg, Cambria County, on August 9, 1858, son of John Sylvester and Ann M. (Macfeely) Rhey. Through his mother he traces his ancestry to John Macfeely, who lived in Middleton Township, not far from Carlisle, and was first taxed in Cumberland County in 1778. In 1781, John Macfeely was a member of the Cumberland County Militia, 1st Company, 2d Battalion, 4th class, engaged in service during the Revolutionary War. He married Elizabeth Line, born in 1751, in Lancaster County, a daughter of George and Salome (Carpenter) Line. George Line, whose father bore the same name, was born in Switzerland, of Huguenot parents, who brought him to America on their quest for religious freedom, when he was only six years old. The father died on shipboard. The mother and son settled in Lancaster County about 1704, and there, when he reached maturity, George Line married Salome Zimmerman, whose surname was later Anglicized to Carpenter. They were the parents of a large family, one of whom was Elizabeth. Between 1778 and 1785, most of the Line family migrated to Cumberland County. Elizabeth Line became a resident of Middleton Township and was there married to John Macfeely.

Colonel George Macfeely, fourth child and second son of John and Elizabeth (Line) Macfeely, became a member of the Cumberland County Militia in early life and upon the outbreak of the War of 1812 was commissioned a colonel. His command was a Cumberland County regiment, consisting of men from Carlisle and other parts of the county, with whom he marched from Carlisle into the campaign centering in the region of the Great Lakes. Colonel George Macfeely married Margaret McCann, daughter of Robert McCann and member of an early Pennsborough family. They were the parents of Ann M. Macfeely, who became the wife of John Sylvester Rhey, of Cambria County.

John Macfeely Rhey, son of this marriage, was brought to Carlisle in his infancy by his parents. He studied at Dickinson College and afterward was appointed journal clerk to the Pennsylvania State Senate at Harrisburg. While serving there he decided to adopt the profession of law and entered upon his legal studies, which culminated in his graduation from the Dickinson School of Law. Upon his admission to the Cumberland County bar, Mr. Rhey began practice at Carlisle. As the demands upon his services increased, he grew in professional stature. He was long ago admitted to the bar of the Supreme and Superior courts of Pennsylvania and has appeared regularly in the various courts in cases of importance during the course of his career. More recently, he has specialized in orphan's court work and largely limits his practice now to that field.

Mr. Rhey has also served as district attorney of Cumberland County and as a solicitor to the directors of the poor of Cumberland County. His professional standing and fine integrity, combined with his acknowledged civic spirit, which has long been a beneficial force in Carlisle life, have combined to win for him a secure place in the public regard. He has been actively associated with many community enterprises, both civic and benevolent, and has given unstinted support to valuable community institutions. Mr. Rhey is an influential Republican in politics and a member of the Second Presbyterian Church of Carlisle.

He married, on February 1, 1916, at Pittsburgh, Agnes M. Elliott, of Mercer, Mercer County, a daughter of James G. and Eva (Pearson) Elliott. Mrs. Rhey was a member of an old Mercer family and a descendant of pioneer settlers—the Elliotts, Perrys and others—in the Cumberland Valley. She died April 15, 1938.

E. MODE VALE—In his present practice as an active lawyer at Carlisle, E. Mode Vale continues a family tradition which has been closely linked for many years with the history of the Pennsylvania bar.

He was born at Camp Hill, Cumberland County, on September 25, 1867, a son of Captain Joseph Griffith and Mill). Harry Hance, who is sole manager and operator, is a skillful and scientific miller, and his products have a first-class reputation among his patrons. He married, December 27, 1874, Jennie E. Swigert, of Mount Holly, this county, and to them have been born four children, Nora Edith, Theodore, Blanche and an infant (deceased). Our subject is a life-long Republican, and is now serving his township as school director. He is an upright and worthy citizen and an enterprising and successful business man.

REV. JACOB HOLLINGER, minister and retired farmer, P. O. Mooredale, was born in Monroe Township, this county, August 22, 1827. His great-grandfather came from Switzerland to America in a very early day, and his grandfather, Jacob Hollinger, was born in America. Daniel Hollinger (father of our subject), a native of York County, Penn., married Catherine Dillinger, also a native of York County. Immediately after marriage they settled in Mouroe Township, this county. Of their eleven children nine grew to maturity and six are now living: Daniel, in Plympton, Kas.; Jacob; John, in Russell, Kas.; Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchison; Mrs. Catherine Eckert; and Mrs Rebecca Martin. The father of these children departed this life in 1859, and his widow survived until 1872. He was a life-long minister of the German Baptist Church, and five of his sons, following in their father's footsteps, became ministers of the gospel. He was an upright pioneer, and his memory is cherished and honored by all who knew him. Rev. Jacob Hollinger, the subject of this sketch, was married, October 4, 1849, to Mary A. Sheaffer, a native of Monroe Township, this county, where her parents, Jacob and Elizabeth Sheaffer resided until their death. After their marriage, Rev. Jacob Hollinger and his wife settled in Dickinson Township, this county, and in 1852 they moved to South Middleton Township, where they resided until 1861, then returned to Dickinson Township, and have since resided here. By industry and good management they have acquired a fine farm of 180 acres of well improved farm land, and also own thirty-five acres of timbered land on South Mountain. To them have been born eleven children, seven of whom are now living: John Edward, George William, Mrs. Florence Hertzler, Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, Jacob S., Mrs. Anna Mary Cooper, and Alice Eva. Our subject united with the German Baptist Church in 1854, and was chosen a minister in the church in 1869, which relation he has sustained ever since. He is a man of firm principles and strict integrity, a worthy citizen, highly respected by the entire community.

ABRAM L. LINE, farmer, P. O. Mooredale, was born in Dickinson Township, this county, March 2, 1841. George Line, great-grandfather of our subject, emigrated from Switzerland to America with his parents, about 1710, when a young boy; they settled in Pennsylvania, where he grew to manhood, and married, in Lancaster County, Salome Zimmerman; and in 1778 they came to Dickinson Township, this county, and purchased land. Of their children, David remained in Lancaster County; John, William, Abraham, Elizabeth, Susanna and Salome settled in this county. John married Anna B. Le Fevre, and they remained on the family homestead until their death; their children were John, George L., Mrs. Catherine Tritt, Mrs. Mary Coulter and Salome. George L. married Maria Line, and succeeded his parents on the family homestead, and to him and his wife were born four children: Mrs. Elizabeth Hemminger, John A., Emanuel C., and Abram L. George L. Line was a very prominent man in public affairs, and was colonel of a regiment in the old State militia; he died in 1885; his wife departed this life in 1869. Their son Abram L. Line, the subject of this sketch, married, October 21, 1863, Sarah H. McMath, a native of Carlisle, and daughter of the well-known merchant, James McMath, of Scotch-Irish descent. Since their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Line have resided on their present farm, which descended to him from his mother's branch of the Line family, and has been in the possession of the family for the last fifty years; it is a fine property of 120 acres of fertile and well improved land, and includes one of the finest picnic grounds in the county. To our subject and wife have been born two children: George L. and Laura Augusta. Mr. Line enlisted, in July, 1862, in Company A, One Hundred and Thirtieth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. He was assigned to the Army of the Potomac, and served in the historic campaigns in Virginia and Maryland; he took part in the hard-fought battles of South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville; he received a slight wound at Antietam, and was honorably discharged in May, 1863, after having risen, by promotion, to the rank of fourth sergeant. Mr. Line was for many years a Republican in politics, but is now an earnest Nationalist. He takes great interest in public affairs, especially in the cause of education, and has been called upon to serve his township as school director. He is a man of genial, social disposition, an upright and worthy citizen, highly respected by the community in which he lives.

DAVID LINE, farmer, P. O. Carlisle, was born in Dickinson Township, this county, May 4, 1830, son of David, who was a son of William, who was a son of George Line, the founder of the Line family in this county. Our subject attended the schools of the home district, and completed his education by a course in Burns Academy at Good Hope, Penn. Seven years of his early manhood were spent principally in Washington County, Iowa, during which time he returned home to attend school for one winter. He married, November 30, 1864, Mary E. Ralston, a native of this county, a daughter of David and Lacey (McAllister) Ralston, and soon after marriage they located where he now resides, in Dickinson Township, where he has a fine farm of 178 acres, being part of the homesteads of both families. On this farm David Line has erected a handsome brick residence and very complete and substantial farm buildings. To our subject and wife were born five children: James Edwin, William D., Samuel A., Marion Myers, and Sarah Ella. Mrs. Line died November 12, 1876. She was a sincere Christian, a devoted wife and mother, and her death was mourned by a large circle of friends. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Line and all his sons are members of the First Presbyterian Church at Carlisle, Penn. Our subject devotes a great deal of attention to the education of his children, and takes a deep interest in all enterprises for the mental and moral improvement of the community. In politics he is a Republican.

EMANUEL C. LINE, farmer, P. O. Carlisle, was born on the farm where he now resides, in Dickinson Township, this county, May 8, 1837. His father, Geo. L. Line, was a son of John Line, and a grandson of George Line, the original founder of the family in this county. John Line married Barbara Ann Le Fevre, and to them were born five children, viz.: George L., John (deceased), Salome (deceased), Mrs. Catherine Tritt (deceased), and Mrs. Mary Ann Coulter. George L. Line married his second cousin, Miss Maria Line (daughter of Emanuel Line, and granddaughter of William Line), and they settled on the family homestead, which was purchased, in 1778, by George Line (grandfather of George L.) from Gen. John Armstrong, and has been in the possession of the family for four generations. The old mansion residence, built of stone, was erected by Gen. Armstrong, in 1768, and is still occupied. Here Mr. and Mrs. George L. Line resided until their death. Their children are as follows: Mrs. Elizabeth M. Hemminger, John A., Emanuel C. and Abram L. Mrs. George L. Line died November 27, 1869, and Mr. Line died November 5, 1885, aged eighty years, ten months and ten days. He was a useful and highly respected citizen, and the memory of this couple is cherished by a large circle of relatives and friends. Emanuel C. Line remained on the mansion farm, and took care of his parents in their old age. He now owns here a fine property of 101 acres of well-improved land.

JACOB ZITZER LINE, farmer, P. O. Carlisle, was born in Dickinson Township, this county, September 22, 1854. His father, George Line, a son of Abraham and grandson of George, was born March 5, 1801, and married Miss Rebecca Myers, daughter of Jacob and Susan Myers, and to them were born, Abram (deceased), George (deceased), Mrs. Rebecca Long (Rebecca's twin sister died in infancy), Jacob Zitzer, Mrs. Anne Lindsey, William, Mrs. Agnes Allen, and Mollie (deceased). The father of these children died September 9, 1877, and the mother now resides in Carlisle, Penn. Jacob Zitzer Line married, December 28, 1876, Jane Margaret Lindsey, a native of West Pennsborough Township, this county, and a daughter of John F. and Rachel (Woodburn) Lindsey, and after their marriage they settled on their present farm, where they have 108 acres of fertile and well improved land. To them have been born the following children: Mervin Lindsey, George Valentine and Leroy Zitzer. Mr. Line is a member of the Evangelical Association, his wife being a member of the First Presbyterian Church at Carlisle. He is earnestly devoted to the cause of literature and education, and is a member of the "Pansy" class of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle. In politics he is a Republican, with strong temperance principles.

JAMES V. LINE, farmer, P. O. Carlisle, was born on the farm where he now resides, in Dickinson Township, this county, February 14, 1851. His grandfather, Abraham, son of the well-known pioneer George Line, married Christina Eby, and their children were as follows: Abram, William, Gabriel, George, Henry, Mrs. Ann Carothers, Mrs. Sarah Kurtz, Mrs. Susan Tritt and Mrs. Betsy Le Fevre. William became the founder of Linesville, Crawford Co., Penn., Henry married Francis Donor, and reared a family of four children: Mrs. Frances Peffer, Mrs. Jane Myers, James V. and Laura; his wife died April 19, 1875, and he followed her May 19, 1879. Henry Line was an influential citizen; he acquired an estate of 522 acres of land, in four farms. James V. Line, the subject of this sketch, married, January 20, 1874, Catherine Spotts, a native of Dickinson Township, this county; her parents, Abram and Mary Spotts, now reside at Battle Creek, Ida Co., Iowa. Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Line have resided on the old homestead of his father, and here he has a fine farm of 150 acres of fertile and well improved land. To our subject and wife have been born two children: James Harvey and Millicent May. Mrs. Line is a member of the Lutheran Church. Mr. Line is a life-long Republican. He is an enterprising and successful farmer, and enjoys the respect of the entire community.

SAMUEL C. LINE, farmer, P. O. Carlisle, was born in Dickinson Township, this county, October 2, 1840. His great-grandfather, George Line, a native of Switzerland, came to this county from Lancaster County, Penn., in 1778, and purchased 540 acres of land from Gen. John Armstrong, and resided here until his death. His sons and daughters were: William, David, Abraham, John, Mrs. Elizabeth McFeely, Mrs. Sarah Houk and Mrs. Susanna Smith. William, a soldier in the Revolutionary war, married a Miss Bear, and they ended their lives in Dickinson Township, this county; their children were: George, Nancy Musselman, Catherine Eby, Mary Spangler, Emanuel, Sally Tritt, Rachel Snyder, Susanna Myers, David, Rebecca Givler, and Lydia Myers. SAMUEL C. LINE, farmer, P. O. Carlisle, was born in Dickinson Township, this county, October 4, 1840. His great-grandfather, George Line, a native of Switzerland, came to this county from Lancaster County, Penn., in 1779, and purchased 840 acres of land from Gen. John Armstrong, and resided here until his death. His sons and daughters were: William, David, Abraham, John, Mrs. Elizabeth McFeely, Mrs. Sarah Hook and Mrs. Susanna Smith. William, a soldier in the Revolutionary war, married a Miss Bear, and they ended their lives in Dickinson Township, this county; their children were: George, Nancy Kauffman, Catharine Eby, Mary Spangler, Emanuel, Sally Tritt, Rachel Snyder, Susanna Myers, David, Rebecca Givler, and Lydia Myers. David was born August 30, 1792; he married Miss Sarah Myers, and they located on the family homestead, where they erected the present commodious mansion, and reared a family of eight children: Mrs. Mary Ann Greason (deceased), Dr. William Line, George, Mrs. Matilda Huston (deceased), David, Mrs. Sarah Jane Huston, Frances R. (deceased), and Samuel C. The subject of this sketch, after attending the district school, completed his education at Burns Academy, Good Hope, this county. He married, February 23, 1871, Miss Emma Myers, who was born in Carlisle, Penn., while her father, John Myers, was holding the office of sheriff of this county. John Myers came from Lancaster County, Penn., to Dickinson Township, this county, with his parents, when he was four years of age; married Miss Elizabeth Fishburn, and to them were born thirteen children, eleven of whom grew to maturity, Emma (wife of our subject) being the youngest. Mr. Myers located, with his family, in McCutchenville, Wyandot County, Ohio, in 1845; there purchased the hotel-stand, and remained during the remainder of his life; many of his descendants now reside in that locality. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Line are now residing on the mansion farm, which has been in the possession of the family for four generations. He has here a fine place of 140 acres of fertile and well improved land. He is a life-long Republican in politics. His wife is a member of the First Presbyterian Church at Carlisle.

JOHN MORRISON, retired farmer, P. O. Barnitz, was born in Dickinson Township, this county, July 1, 1818. His father, William Morrison (a native of Ireland) immigrated to America, when a boy, with his parents, and came to this county when a youth, where he was engaged for many years as door-keeper at the jail in Carlisle. About 1805 William located in Dickinson Township, he being then twenty-one years of age, and here he married Sarah Wolf, a native of this county; her father, William Wolf immigrated to this country from Germany, when seven years of age, and resided in this county until his death; both he and wife are buried at Boiling Springs. William Morrison died in 1884; his widow survived him many years, and resided with her son John until her death; she died February 20, 1872, aged eighty years; her children were Margaret, Mrs. Ann Knopp (deceased), John, William (deceased), Samuel, and James (deceased). John Morrison, the subject of this sketch, passed his early life on the farm in this county. He married, February 24, 1842, Jane Lockhart, daughter of Samuel and Catherine Lockhart, natives of this county, latter of whom died in 1876 at the advanced age of ninety years. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison have resided in Dickinson Township, this county, ever since their marriage, and located on their present farm in 1858; they own here a fine place of 180 acres of well improved land, besides a tract of fifty acres of timbered land on South Mountain. They have reared nine children: Mrs. Grizelle Hollinger (deceased), Winfield Scott, Mrs. Caroline Stouffer, William H., Mrs. Sarah Catherine Martin, Mrs. Anna Mary Martin, Frank G., John S. and Martin L.

WINFIELD SCOTT MORRISON was born May 12, 1844. JOHANN GEORG SHADE

"Johann George Shade was born in Wiesbaden on the Rhine in 1716, where he grew up and received his education. He could read and write, and he was able to sign his name in german script, and we find it, as such, on all his legal documents and personal papers. By trade; he was a tanner and a leather-goods manufacturer, and we followed this trade as well as farming in America. It is known that he was a relative of Johann Sebastion Shade, but the exact relationship is in doubt. He married Elizabeth _______ about the year 1739, and the couple became the parents fo 3 boys and 3 girls. Their children ranged in age from 26 to 16 years in 1767 when the family arrived in Philadelphia.

It was very early in springtime that the family commenced the trek down the Rhine on their way to Rotterdam, Holland. It was from here that their ship would sail, but the date of its departure was uncertain and very indefinate. The trip downstream was slow and very tiresome. On this trip down the Rhine, as well as in Rotterdam and Cowes, England the family met with many frustrations and no end of delays. However, the good ship "Minerva" with John Spurrier, master, sailed out of Cowes, England in early 1767 and arrived in Philadelphia October 20, of that year, and the family immediately located their new home in York County west of the Susquehanna River. The region bordered upon and, to some extent, it was still a part of the American frontier as it exsisted in 1767. The country was very sparsely settled then and its future was clouded with uncertainties, but the climate and the soil were considered highly adaptable to farming.

The American Revolution lay in the offing and men's minds were concerned with problems and responsibilities that bore down upon them from all sides and these newcomers to Pennsylvania found themselves involved in the trials and emergencies of moment.

Johann Georg located his farm in Warrington Township, York County, and, as planned and equipped, it was the largest so far in the county. The family lived here and prospered until war came in 1776.

The county now mustered and sent several contingents to meet Gen.

Washington in New England. George and David joined the Cumberland County Militia, or "Rangers on the Frontier". They served in the 4th and 5th classes of the 5th Battalion.

In the meantime (1775) Johann Georg died interstate. His death left John with the care and management of the farm and without the nessessary legal procedures available to liquidate the estate among the heirs. His eldest dauhter, Catherine married Frederick Flick and had moved to Antrim Township, Cumberland County (Franklin County after 1784). Susanna married Anthony Shatto and they went away to live in Sherman's valley, Tyrone Township, Cumberland County (Perry County after 1820).

Four years now passed away during which time the heirs continued to meet with frustrations in thei efforts to have the estate divided among them. Finally at its session Feb. 14, 1779, John came before the Orphan's Court with petition setting forth that the petitioner's father had died interstate (sic) almost four years ago leaing to survive him wis widow, Elizabeth, and six children. The court accordingly appointed a jury of twelve men along with the sheriff of York county to review and examine the status of the estate as to the best method of distribution....."

Ok, John brought me up to speed on the discussion.

Toboyne Township is the westernmost portion of modern day Perry County.

Sherman's Creek runs the length (east-west) so that most of the township is in Sherman's Valley.

Someone local is welcome to correct my information - but I have been told that the valley is still very remote and isolated (and beautiful). There is still only the one road out, to Carlisle, and it is often blocked with snow in the winter. If you look at a physical map of PA, you can see that Perry County, Cumberland and the other nearby counties are all in the mountains - lots of hills, valleys, streams - and a small population, so not many roads. People in Toboyne would have to travel half the county to get to the road to a different county.

My Presbyterian Scotch-Irish families settled for a couple generations in Toboyne - some of them are still there under unknown surnames. Some should still be there named BAXTER and EATON but I'm not finding them. Many of them - HUNTER, KINDLE, NEEPER - moved to Miami County, OH.

Somewhere I have a simple outline map of Perry County which shows the townships - it was in an old issue of the Perry Historians - a "must-do" group if you are researching in Perry County.

Stephens, who became the father of Alexander Stephens, Vice-President of the Confederacy. That topic is covered by a chapter in this book. Also refer to description of Juniata Township and Old Ferries. James Baskins' descendants conducted ferries in the vicinity until they were replaced with bridges. The old Presbyterian graveyard on the bluff above Duncannon was originally known as Baskins' graveyard, and there sleep these Baskins pioneers. An act of the Pennsylvania Legislature, dated April 4, 1838, provided for the building of the first bridge "at the Juniata's mouth," and named George Stroop, Robert Clark, Amos A. Jones, Thomas Duncan, Jacob Keiser, Wm. Clark, Alex. Branyan, Henry Hackett, James Black, Robert Mitchell, John Wagner, Jacob Shively, Benj. McIntire, Daniel Grove, George Barnett and Fred'k Rinehart, as stockholders.

Above the James Baskins tract was a place known as "Barren Hills," which contained 300 acres, and was taken up by William Baskins in 1766. On Little Juniata Creek was 263 acres taken up by Isaac Jones in 1766. This is the Haas' mill tract. East of it Andrew Berryhill took up 331 acres in 1766. It is named in the warrant "Sherman's Valley." He sold the right and it passed to John Shearman, who is the first man by that name to patent land in the county (November 24, 1781), although the western part of the county was known as "Shearman's Valley" and the creek as "Shearman's Creek" as early as 1750.

In The Cove lands were warranted by Joseph Watkins (1774), Thomas White, James White, Elizabeth Branyan, Alexander Gailey and Israel Jacobs. David and William Ogle warranted 500 acres in 1792. David Stout settled along the river, his warrant being dated March 14, 1755. George Allen resided here before 1762, and from him is derived the names of Allen's Cove and Allen's Island. Allen never warranted the lands, and it is likely that the tract taken up by Thomas Barnett was negotiated for through Allen and was one and the same tract. On June 4, 1762, Thomas Barnett took out a warrant for 317 acres, and resided there until 1787, when he purchased the right of David Mitchell for 418 acres, upon a part of which the county seat is now located. Mr. Barnett had two sons, Frederick and George. His Cove lands he conveyed to his son Frederick, who lived and died there, leaving the property to his descendants, one of whom, Joseph Barnett, long postmaster at Cove, still resides there. Thomas Barnett then lived upon the Bloomfield tract until his death, in 1814, when that property passed to his other son, George Barnett. The island, known as the Wister Island, was a part of his Cove holdings, its acreage being stated as sixty-four. Another early warrantee was Alexander Branyan.

Among other lands warranted were: Samuel Goudy, 215 acres in 1766; Richard Coulter, 217 acres in 1762, later owned by Rev. James Brady; Alexander Rutherford, 300 acres in 1787; Robert Nicholson, 682 acres in 1769; Joseph Kirkpatrick, 100 acres in 1790; Isaac Kirkpatrick, 300 acres in 1814, and Benjamin Abraham, 207 acres on both sides of Sherman's Creek at "the loop," in 1766.

On the Little Juniata Creek, above Duncannon, which is located on the John Brown warrant, was a tract of 263 acres surveyed to Isaac Jones in 1766. His son, Robert Jones, erected a sawmill and a gristmill, whose son, Cadwallader Jones, owned it when the county came into existence. From him it passed to Frederick Albright, who sold it to Jacob Bruner. Mr. Bruner erected a woolen mill with fulling and carding machinery, and did a large manufacturing business in the making of cloth. It later passed to John and Benjamin Shade, Samuel Shull and Samuel Haas, the latter being the last owner to conduct the milling business. Sylvester S. Sheller purchased the property in 1898, and erected a large ice dam in 1900. He sold the property in 1919 to Thomas Mutzabaugh, who is the present owner.

On an order of survey, dated April 27, 1787, Alexander Rutherford located 300 acres of land above the Isaac Jones tract, on Little Juniata Creek. Here Frederick Speck built an oil and fulling mill about 1840, which he operated for a few years. In 1846 it passed to Robert King, who changed it to a gristmill. It passed to William C. King, and is known to this day as King's mill. After passing from the Kings it was sold to Philip Cook, whose executors, in 1884, conveyed it to James Everhart. It is now owned by Maria Rumbaugh.

H. and E. Mager were operating a woolen goods factory in the Cove in 1841.

The Goudy location, at the mouth of Clark's Run, became the western landing of Clark's ferry, described elsewhere in this volume. The warrant of 100 acres to Joseph Kirkpatrick passed from him to his brother Moses, who accumulated 600 acres of land, which, at his death in 1820, passed to his eight children. Isaac, the oldest son (known in later years as Elder Isaac), on May 23, 1814, warranted 300 acres of lands adjoining some of those of his father. In 1876 he was assessed with 476 acres, mostly in present Carroll Township. He died September 8, 1865, in his ninetieth year, having been an elder in the Presbyterian Church for sixty-one years. An act of the Pennsylvania Legislature, dated March 13, 1795, authorized William Beatty to erect a dam from Sheep Island to the west bank of the Juniata River. This island lies in the Juniata River a short distance above the iron bridge at the north end of Duncannon. An act of March 21, 1868, annexed Wister's Island to Penn Township, detaching it from Dauphin County. It lies in the Susquehanna River, almost opposite Covallen Station. The first bridge over Sherman's Creek, near the Duncannon Iron Company plant, was built in 1832.

In reference to education the first record of a schoolhouse in Penn Township was contained in a law regulating election districts, which passed the legislature in 1797, and was signed by Thomas Mifflin, the first governor of the State of Pennsylvania, which declared that the Union schoolhouse at Petersburg (now Duncannon) should be the voting place for the district then formed. Its erection naturally is farther back than that time. It was built of logs, the spaces between the logs being closed with mortar. It was about twenty-five feet square. There was a broad fireplace at one side and the seats were of slabs and without backs. It stood where the Duncannon National Bank now stands. It was in use until about 1845, at which time a four-room building was erected upon the site of the present building, but later was removed to the corner of Ann Street and Church Avenue and turned into tenements, being still used in that capacity.

Before the public school law of 1834 became operative there was a school where the Michener schoolhouse now stands. There was an early school at Young's mill, which was attended by pupils within a radius of four miles. Joseph McIntire was a teacher in that building. The old Methodist church at Young's graveyard, near Duncannon, was bought in 1840 and used as a school building for many years.

An early resident of "The Loop" was David Carnes, who came from York County. He had two sons, David and John, and three daughters, Catharine (Mrs. Castlebury Harris), Hannah (Mrs. Jonathan Michener) and Maria (Mrs. Doane Michener), whose descendants are widely located.

Among the merchants of the end of the century was W. R. Swartz, located at the extreme northern end of what was then Baskinsville, long in business there and once a member of the General Assembly from Perry County. For years that was the only store in the section known as Basarine, Joseph, Phoebe, Moses, Henry and Eliza. This generation also all grew to maturity and, with a single exception, remained in the county of their birth, and they and their descendants form a very respectable and influential element in the social and business activities of the section. John Wetzel died on May 26, 1842; his wife died Oct. 5, 1881, and both are buried at Carlisle Springs.

George Wetzel, the first child of John and Catharine (Wise) Wetzel, was born Dec. 25, 1826, in North Middleton township, on the farm long owned by the late Capt. George Braught. His parents lived on several different properties in that vicinity until in the spring of 1832, when they moved to the George Wise farm, and there engaged at farming for a period of eleven years. The father dying when the boy George was only a little over fifteen years of age, and there being ten other children still younger, it became necessary that they be early taught to be self-supporting. Accordingly George was apprenticed to the wagonmaking trade in Carlisle with Charles Pfleager, who by marriage was a cousin of the boy's father. He entered upon his apprenticeship early in the month of March, 1845. Three weeks afterward the Carlisle courthouse and town hall were burned, and the young man, witnessing their destruction, was so worked up by the excitement of the occasion that he soon thereafter joined the Union Fire Company, and has been a faithful and enthusiastic fireman through all his long lifetime. There was much doing at wagonmaking in those days, and upon completing his trade he built himself a shop and began business on his own account. Being a good mechanic he commanded a patronage which afforded steady employment both for himself and for a force of journeymen and apprentices. In 1866 he quit wagonmaking to engage in the hotel business. He kept the well-known "Pennsylvania House" for two years and afterward the "Franklin House" for six years. Being an ardent Democrat and an influential party worker he in 1861 was elected to the borough council, and in 1869 was elected county treasurer, which was then a two-year office. Afterward, when Carlisle was passing through a reign of terror from firebugs and other lawless characters, he served a term as town constable, and the courage and fidelity with which he performed the trying duties of that position were highly commended. In 1846 he joined the Washington Artillery, one of Carlisle's famous military companies, of which he was a member for seven years. In September, 1862, when the Confederates crossed the Potomac and threatened to advance still farther northward, he enlisted in the State militia under Capt. Ephraim Cornman, Col. Henry McCormick, and during the emergency did military service on the borders of Maryland. In religion, he followed the example of his ancestry and early united with the Reformed Church of Carlisle, sang in its choir, served as deacon and trustee and was otherwise prominent in promoting its interests. Since he has retired from the active duties of life he lives in the pleasant home of his daughter, Mrs. H. G. Rinehart, on North Bedford street, Carlisle, where, with faculties unimpaired, he continues to take a lively interest in the affairs of the day and composedly awaits the future.

On June 28, 1849, George Wetzel was married to Sarah Ellen Shade, Rev. A. H. Kremer, pastor of the Reformed Church of Carlisle, performing the ceremony. Sarah Ellen Shade was a daughter of John and Susan Shade. John Shade, her father, was a carpenter and builder, long of Carlisle, but formerly of Perry county and a descendant of a Revolutionary ancestor. George and Sarah Ellen (Shade) Wetzel had the following children: John W., Charles Henry, Catharine, Sarah Adelia, Rebecca Florence, Mary Elizabeth, George B. McClellan, Annie Matilda, Ida May and Frank William Dale.

John Wise Wetzel, the eldest of these ten children, and the especial subject of this sketch, was born in Carlisle April 20, 1850. In his boyhood he attended the public schools of Carlisle, and then, after preparing under Prof. David Sterrett, entered Dickinson College, from which institution he graduated in 1874. While in college he read law with C. E. Maglaughlin, Esq., and was admitted to the Bar of Cumberland county in April, 1874, two months betore his graduation. He then entered upon the practice of his profession in the town of Carlisle and has steadily and assiduously pursued it ever since. He has made good progress and ranks high as a lawyer and counselor, both in the courts of his own and those of adjoining counties. He is extensively employed by leading corporations, being attorney for the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company, the Crescent Pipe Line, the Lindner Shoe Company, the Carlisle Carpet Mills, the Letort Carpet Company, the Letort Axle Works, the Carlisle Chain Works, and others that might be mentioned. He is a member of the Cumberland County Bar Association, also of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and for many years has been secretary of the committee on Admissions to the State Bar Association. He is one of the incorporators of the Dickinson School of Law at Carlisle, and since 1884 has been a trustee of Franklin and Marshall College, at Lancaster City. He works hard, gives prompt attention to business, is liberal and progressive in all things and an influential factor in the social and material development of his town and county. He is one of the incorporators of the Merchants National Bank of Carlisle, and since 1893 president of its board of directors. He gives studious and careful attention to the finances of his section of the country and is a member of the Pennsylvania State Bankers' Association. He aids in establishing and promoting business enterprises, and was for a number of years a director of the Carlisle Gas & Water Company, is now a member of the Beetem Lumber & Manufacturing Company, and president of the Big Spring Turnpike Company.

Like nearly all of his large family Mr. Wetzel, in politics, is a Democrat, and before his law business absorbed so much of his time and attention was very active and prominent in party management. In 1876 he was a delegate to the Democratic State Convention and again in 1890. In 1880 he was elected District Attorney of Cumberland county by an unusually large majority, and in 1882, in an exciting and memorable campaign, was chairman of the Democratic executive committee. Fraternally, he is a member of the order of Knights of Pythias, also of the Cumberland Star Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, in which he is a past master.

On Sept. 3, 1872, John W. Wetzel was married to Miss Lizzie Wolf, youngest daughter of John and Elizabeth Wolf, of Carlisle. Both are members of the Reformed Church of Carlisle, in which Mr. Wetzel has been a deacon and is now an elder. To John W. and Lizzie (Wolf) Wetzel one child has been born, a son named George Frank Wetzel, who is a graduate of

The first try to send this was such a mess! Here is a second try -hopefully in an easier to read format.

Shade family in PA from CDs # 130, 166 and 209. This was done originally in Word 97 so it looks rather strange here. If anyone wants it in the original format, email me personally and I will send it to you direct.

Schade, Shade family

CarolynK_S (View posts) Posted: 18 Mar 2004 2:45PM

Classification: Query Edited: 9 Jul 2004 6:10PM

Surnames: Shade, Schade

Does anyone have access to the early York county tax lists? Would like to find information on David Shade/Schade and his (unproven) father George who lived in York in the 1770-1780 time period. David and wife Elisabeth had a daughter Anna Margaret baptized 1770 Christ Evangelical Church, City of York and Elizabeth and Anna Catherine bapt. 1773 and 1775 at First Reformed of York. Did they live in the city of York or a surrounding township? Does anyone have any information on George Shade who supposedly died in Warrington Twp, York County?

I have a book from the Penna. Archives called "Tax List of York County, 1779.
I have checked for your family name and found a John Shade in Warrington Township, owned no acres, had no negroes, had 2 horses, had 2 cattle and his Tax was 4.7.0
I could not find any other Shade, Schade in the book. I also have a book called 100 years at Warrington that lists Marriages, removals, births and deaths. I checked in this book also to see if there were any listed with that last name, I found nothing.

Thank you, thank you, thank you! This makes many of the bits and pieces that I have fit together! I am a descendent of David Shade through his daughter Barbara Elizabeth (1789-1863 who married Solomon Fenical (Fengel/Finicle etc). I still have not been able to determine whether the Anna Shade buried near Barbara Elizabeth Fenical in Richland County OH is the same person as Elizabeth Shade in the baptismal records of David's children

Other Records & Notes

"Johann George Shade was born in Wiesbaden on the Rhine in 1716, where he grew up and received his education. He could read and write, and he was able to sign his name in german script, and we find it, as such, on all his legal documents and personal papers. By trade he was a tanner and a leather-goods manufacturer, and we followed this trade as well as farming in America. It is known that he was a relative of Johann Sebastion Shade, but the exact relationship is in doubt. He married Elizabeth _______ about the year 1739, and the couple became the parents to 3 boys and 3 girls. Their children ranged in age from 26 to 16 years in 1767 when the family arrived in Philadelphia.

It was very early in the springtime that the family commenced the trek down the Rhine on their way to Rotterdam, Holland. It was from here that their ship would sail, but the date of its departure was uncertain and indefinite. The trip downstream was slow and very tiresome. On this trip down the Rhine, as well as in Rotterman and Cowes, England the family met with many frustrations and no end of delays. However, the good ship "Minerva" with John Spurrier, master, sailed out of Cowes, England in early 1767 and arrived in Philadelphia October 20, of that year, and the family immediately located their new home in York County west of the Susquehanna River. The region bordered upun and, to some extent, it was still a part of the American frontier as it existed in 1767. The country was very sparsely settled then and its future was clouded with uncertainties, but the climate and the soil were considered adaptable to farming.

The American Revolution lay in the offing and the men's minds were concerned with problems and responsibilities that bore down upon them from all sides and these newcomers to Pennsylvania found themselves in the trials and emergencies of moment.

Johann Georg located his farm in Warrington Township, York County, and, as planned and equipped, it was the larges so far in the county. The family lived here and prospered until war came in 1776.

The county now mustered and sent several contingents to meet Gen. Wasington in New England. George and David joined the Cumberland County Militia, or 'Rangers on the Frontier'. They served in the 4th and 5th classes of the 5th Battalion.

In the meantime (1775) Johann Georg died inerstate. His death left John with the care and management of the farm and without the necessary legal procedures available to liquidate the estate among the heirs. His eldest daughter, Catherine married Frederick Flick and had moved to Antrim Township, Cumberland County (Franklin County after 1784). Susanna married Anthony Shatto and they went away to live in Sherman's Valley, Tyrone Township, Cumberland County (Perry County after 1820).

Four years now passed away during which time the heirs continued to meet with frustration in their efforts to have the estate divided among them. Finally at its session Feb. 14 1779, John came before the Orphan's Court with petition setting forth that the petitioner's father had died interstate almost four years ago leaving to survive him his widow, Elizabeth and six children. The court accordingly appointed a jury of twelve men along with the sheriff of York county to review and examine the status of the estate as to the best method of distribution......" From "Pioneers" by Hoffman.
